I know I should ask, because I'll get flamed, because I'm a partial retard, but anyways...

If anyone likes to code e107 themes (for any reason), please contact me. I have all the images, I just need the theme coded because I am incompetent. Thanks.

Haha!

I didn't want to start a fuss by saying it, but you got it off my chest.

It's funny because you said what we were all thinking.

As for e107, I could possibly code what you need, but I won't because it will eat up way too much time.

Check out:

<http://e107coders.org/news.php>

And if you go to their forums (or any other forum related to e107) you are bound to find people who are proficient at what you are asking.
