Renegade officially sucks. I have played it for three years straight and am so bored of it it's not even funny. I need some ideas for some new games that are fun to play online. As Renegade is slowly dying off, I am wondering in a new direction into playing another game. I will still play Renegade but not much anymore. So anyone have any idea for any games I should know about?

This guy knows what he is talking about.

Counter Strike Source is your best option, or CoD, or Guild wars/wow if you like crappy MMORPGs.

deadfiveRenegade officially sucks.

Why the fuck did you start a Renegade fansite?

CS:S is the best online game ever. (IMO)

Some of your posts on here make it seem you've only played for 3 days.

Yeah I know, but it doesn't really matter, they are just posts and Renegade is dying. I played it today and owned everyone I played. Which was only two games on my 12 player server, but still, it is boring and I need a new game.

Bored with*

Play that MMORPG. It's still in beta, but it's totally free and it's a good MMORPG. I'd say it's almost as good as SWG. Keep in mind that the graphics aren't that good, but stick with it and you'll find it really fun.

Nah, I can get all my shots to hit, but people always get more damage on me. M4 > MP5.

I always use the MP5, UMP, or Deagle. I find that the UMP is more for close quarters, though, I can never get it long range...

If you're really good at aiming for the head (like me) then use the Deagle a lot, because we all know that Deagle + headshot = death.
