Right...

Well, I'm going to turn this into a desktop thread, unless it already was one.

WNxCABALAll my 4 Desktops using the Microsoft Virtual Desktop Manager powertool

How about.....CROPPING THE 4 IMAGES INTO 1.....

It would be one thing if the desktops were seperate, but they are all the same one with alternate images.

How about.....CROPPING THE 4 IMAGES INTO 1.....

It would be one thing if the desktops were separate, but they are all the same one with alternate images.

It doesn't JUST change the desktops though..

You also can have different applications open on different desktops.
