I was wondering if BHS will ever make a no cd.exe that works with Renguard. Alot of people have been playing Renegade for a long time and I am sure that alot of peoples disks are totally jacked. I still play Renegade but am still moving on. I just want to know if BHS will ever do this for the people who still like Renegade. And plus the fact that Renegade can no longer be seen as a new game at a store and if it is that would be a rare occasion.
