Allright, this happened awhile ago, and they were both on accident, because I wasn't paying attention.

Two months ago (maybe three..) I had just logged off Renegade, but left the RG 'browser' open, I came back a few hours later after seeing a movie, and clicked on Renegade, after I finished playing, it said something about a 'Nickname-login exploit' and I had no idea what it was talking about, and it said it also would record the exploit, I did not do the glitch intentionally, and I want to know if that could ban me; because I have just once again, come back onto Renegade after the three months..and I was meaning to ask earlier...

It will be reviewed, and if they find you didn't do it on purpose, don't worry about it.
