i got a idea for CP2....dunno if itl work or not but just hear meh out

make the MLRS rockets lock on 100% and increase their speed a bit also increase the speed that the arty shell flys through the air just a bit more its just an idea..dnt mind if u put it in or not lol are you joking?

A 100% mrls locking would make it the best vehicel in the game.

And it would remove all the skill you need to use it now

MLRS are not useless on Field, you need to know to use them properly and you will take control of the battlefield quite easily.

They are not useless on Field. Durin the beginning of a game when the arties and mlrs come out in a hurry, 3 mlrs's firing puts 18 missles into the air. Even with maybe only half locking on, those arties are in trouble...

RTsaWhy spoil the balance we have now?

What balance? I'd say renegade is 70% balanced, but there's plenty of balancing still to do.

Well, I wouldn't know about that, but I say it IS quite balanced. Giving an mrls a huge advantage like this would debalance the game. I am pretty sure about this.

And I don't know how this even could be done...I mean what about non-CP players? :rolleyes:
