Hi there, I have had renegade for over a year now, I also have four of my old school friends on it too, we would like to create a clan, how do I do this?

I look forward to hearing from anyone with any ideas for the first steps i can make. Thanks.

Sorry, but you can't.

The clan pages don't work anymore and we simply do not know when or if they will ever work again.

however clanning isn't dead, it has simply migrated to GameSpyArcade. There you can have your clan by simply adding a tag in front of your name.

Whiskey could you explain more on how the GheySpy version works?

well people still have their clans, but play in gsa instead,
I believe clanwars.cc is setting up a manual report league for both gsa and wol clans starting in June. GSA has a lot of clans, but most are scheduled matches only. Some clans like H2O and a few others still patrol the gsa chats looking for games
