hmmm, u have no funny characters in your name do you?

You could try changing ur name rengaurd uses on start-up by using my app here, and see if it works...

This has happened to me before. Do you make sure you wait for the MOTD to fully load untill you press renegade? thats what happened to me

Yeah, that's happened to me before too, either wait for the MOTD to load or ask someone to !rg you when you get in.
