what bullshit

why should just about every server on all of renegade REQUIRE renguard, renguard has so many bugs, mistakes, and fuck ups that it shouldnt be required at all. Why should a bunch of people have to not be able to play renegade online just because it duznt work and it says they dont have it even though they do Woooooowoooo it stops the "big head" cheat how scary i'll take my chances that out of over a 100 servers (usually) i willl pick one that doesnt have a cheater in it. AND not only that but even if there was a cheater in a server the host can ban them THAT IS MY OPINION OF THIS BULLSHIT DOWNLOAD REN "GUARD" :twisted: :twisted:

Must you post this in more than one forum? Oh, yes, you do. Why? Because you're a fucking idiot. If you don't like RenGuard, fine, but at least explain your side intelligently rather than like a child (although I can guarantee that you are one).

You know, if you download RenGuard and run it while you play Renegade, you can get into all those servers that need it. You might want to try that!

No, that's just what they told you. The truth is, your parents committed suicide when they saw how fuck up of a child you were.

Well, you can still find some servers without renguard. After 3 of 4 hours you will love Renguard.

Sniper_De7no dude... my parents both died because of an online program...

There are plenty of idiots who would say that because they hate RenGuard. The only reason why I thought it wasn't sarcastic was because of that reason. I'm not stupid, and I sure as hell wouldn't believe that they died because of a program, but people are stupid enough to say it without being sarcastic, so I'm going to go ahead and think that they're not being sarcastic.

I should make sence, shure renguard aint perfect but if you download it teh right way it souldnt cause any problems, besides, if you dont want to download renguard, find the servers without having to have it, jes prepare to be cheated outta kills and what not. You have no right bashing renguard
