Holy shit you really are the hacking haxxor. Trojaned my PC. Sinds when is grabbing a password exposed on GX called Trojaning somebody's PC? Congratulations you just proved yourself you can copy & paste a word to a Text Form. You also proved yourself to be a big fat liar.

PS: You just made one really bad mistake that every Renegade server will suffer from. The next big Renegade Terror Action that will be noticed by everyone comes from me. And you will all know then thats its because of this guy lying his ass off and Ren Staff being really immature.

Renegade Community shouldn't be ran by such immature people.

Cyberpunk, you are the most pathetic individual who ever bought renegade (or more likely stole it, in your case), just go commit suicide, that way you don't have to worry about getting beat up by that nasty girl at school every day who keeps stealing your lunch money.

If your IQ was higher than twenty you would realise that nopic01 is in fact taslayer from your community of cheaters.

Just a quick piece of advice: if you spent half as much time just actually playing the game as you do trying to kill it, you probably wouldn't suck so badly at it

It's me. And my revenge will be sweet. A few servers already noticed, but that few will change into many and then into all servers. And Ren Staff is definitely included with this incident. If you were responsible mature staff you would not allow this thread. We don't even allow this on UC if somebody from Cheat would expose an Anti-Cheat. This shows again you are just immature and do anything to fuck Cheat up.

The Official Renegade Community is rend by a bunch of immature adults who are addicted to games. You guys won't even try your best to moderate the forums. I wouldn't even call this The Official Renegade Forums no more. More then 50% of the posts here are about something else and most of the times you guys just rape people with bad words if they say ONE thing wrong. But regular members think it's no problem and have no problem to swear and call bad names to new people who are not familiar with forums and stuff (cause C&C Renegade is full of n00bs anyway).

CyberPunk -- I never condone illegal activities. The passwords were posted without my knowledge or consent, and I removed them. I quite honestly thought nopic was blowing smoke up our asses, and he's a member of YOUR community more than this one. I don't think there's anyone here who likes the guy.

But, you do what you think needs to be done -- I can't possibly expect someone like you to listen to reason. But I will warn you that there are people with botnets and such who run Renegade servers, and if you fuck with them, expect to be fucked with in return.

Boo fucking hoo.

Get a life. This is the internet, expect people to do this. And it is a fact that most hackers or cheaters or whatever do what they do becuse they literally suck at every god damn game they play. But the truth is they never give themselves to get good at the game before tehy hack or cheat. If hackers and cheaters or whatever actually played the game instead of crying about how they have been treated like shit in the game, they would be good. Hackers and cheaters: "FUCK OFF"

3. If kept offline, he can't attack servers, and as I said, if his parents catch wind that he's doing something like this by the connection constantly being down, he could very well be grounded/controlled/banned/etc...

Cyberpunk is a perfect example of one of those people whose has talent but uses it for dickish things. He could have used it to better the community, but instead he decides to be a complete asshole and fuck around with everyone. He says "we" the community are n00bs/immature because we are doing what he did to us in return. (Dont take all this literally, Im speaking figuratively) Yes cyberpunk we're fucking immature cause we're the ones who exploited Renegade. We're the ones who fucked it up to the point where a program such as renguard would be needed to keep cheaters out of servers. You're the fucking n00bs who hacks. You're the fucking n00b who has no skill and decides that the only way you can win is to use hacks. Stop your bitching an deal with the consiquences. You've diserved this since day 1. You fucked all the die hard players in the ass, well guess what.... your getting fucked right back. What goes around, comes around bitch!!!!

Not so. If he would do unto others, as he would want them to do unto him, then getting hacked/DDoS'd/etc is what he wants.

And if we are doing unto him as he has done to us, the end result is the same... No?

Look, this post was started because someone was trying to act all big, and bad. In the end looked like a dimwit, but that is beside the point. Cyberpunk does have skills', he does have a very interesting way of doing things', but he has the same rights' as everyone else on this bord. He has every right to be tee'ed off for this user names', and passwords' being posted. However he is going about revenge the wrong way, I can not say it is absolutly incorrect. He could use his talent for the good cause. I bealive this post needs to be locked because it is going to the point to were no one is talking about the subject. If you ask me it is just turning friends' against friends' also. I have no problem with any of you guys', but like wise I am not going to sit here, and say anything about Cyberpunk. I can forgive, and forget about things', the only problem with society today is that THEY HAVE FORGOTEN HOW TO!

NOW LOCK THIS THRED, AND DELETE IT!

I honestly don't see the harm in his information being spread around the internet. He makes it his point to attack servers that many people PAY for, which shouldn't even matter, anyways. If I pay for something, and it's taken down or messed around with, I'm going to get pissed and want to do what I can to get back at the person for doing what they did. Cyberpunk is an arrogant little prick, and he's throwing around his weight (which he shouldn't have) and striking fear in everybody because of this "revenge" that he's going to have. We're the ones that should be taking revenge on his immature self. You're letting him win by making sure that he has the connection to attack others. That's like the army NOT going after terrorists because they threaten to kill more innocent lives and giving them all the room in the world by not protecting our civilians. You make a threat, expect to be hunted down.

But I will not allow this place to be involved. I have a responsibility to not allow illegal conversations here, so I can't let you guys plan your assaults or password stealing or hacking, or anything like that here.

I guess I just don't feel we need to stoop to his level. We should take measures to prevent him from being able to damage our servers, and that's it.

I consider it security measures. Knocking him offline isn't really stooping to his level if it's to keep him from being able to attack anybody. Mind you, if someone's hitting him just for the simple purpose of hitting him, then I will agree that stooping to his level is wrong.

The only reason I made cheats was out of revenge. You all might not have noticed yet but I never created those averaged boring cheats that made you any good. My purpose only is to make cheats that kill, destroy & spread terror. I myself do not cheat to be good (I find this very boring).

And for revenge. Crimson is a good person. I have no evil feelings at her no more (that does not include you Blazer) and therefore I won't mess with her server again. For all the other servers, prepare for The Doom.

And I really don't care about my IP being publicized. That is the least concern about everything. But 3 of my passwords being posted. I think sharing personal passwords of somebody else is already way out of line. And then sharing my passwords, that just crossed the line really good. I'm not mad, I'm furious.

And Crimson, the only reason I ever started hating you was because I met the wrong person (Ty). He told me about you and your community (a very long time ago). That the mods banned people for the smallest thing they did wrong. Later on I found out these were just lies. So war with Crimson is over. War with Blazer, Mac, Spooky and all those others that just go talk bad about me without actually knowing my real me, done anything what I think is wrong (Blazer: Cheat = Bad no matter what!, Spooky: just the same as Blazer, Mac: Allowing RenGuard to steal personal info. Upload an illegal version of RG if they hate you much.), for you guys the war just started.

Spoony & Blazer just go hate you for supporting Cheat. Going to make stuff up. That's what I really hate about you guys. Spooky said everyone who creates cheats made them because they suck. Wrong, I'm a very good player at most games (I'm really good at RTCW).

PS: The only thing that keeps driving me on, messing with servers, exploiting,... is most people's attitude around here. Fuck with me and I fuck back my way whether you like it or not. Whether people have to suffer from this that do not have anything to do with the case (like now, other servers have to suffer because Nightma12 thought it was fun to go play around with my account), and that other guy just posting 3 off my passwords public. The only servers that will be left alone are non00bs and Crimson's servers.

And Spooky,

no I won't (can't) even take a duel with you because you probably want me to go use RG. If people don't use RG. And they own you bad = They Cheat even if they don't.

I have never done anything to you. I don't even know you, I don't keep my time in Renegade nearly no more right now (only bots that take down servers and sometimes need so managing because you started this whole situation). I'M NOT A HACKER. WHO EVER SAID I WAS? I do not intend to become a hacker (Hackers = People who penetrate systems (mostly government PC's) to get information that the public is not suppose to see. Hacking = Legal as long as you don't damage anything).

And have you even got any proof that -> I <- stole your password or whatever you are trying to say here (so much bullshit I do not even spend my time to read on then the first couple lines).

Or are you just trying to make it look like I all started this? Because I (according to you) stole your password? If you ask me you are just lying just like you did before when you said you trojaned my PC. All you did was taking my passwords & very old ip from a list anyone can access).

CyberPrick, I'll admit, you have talent in what you're doing, but other than that you're an idiot. You have a total lack of common sense. The majority of the Renegade community has done nothing to you, and has probably only have heard of you because of your cheats and your harrassment of servers. As I said to you months ago, making cheats for the sake of making cheats is not wrong, but to make them and either use them yourself or give them to the public is where you cross the line. You're nothing more than a child who gets off on seeing others frustrated because of your lack of respect for others. You serve no purpose in life. Go cut yourself, and remember, it's down the road, not across the street.

If then a immature member on UC takes the passwords, logs in to this forum and Deletes posts, places bans, pretending like hes the big important person and miss abusing his/her position. Then even posting a post under his name that is really ridiculous.

You would just be OK with the fact we should just leave it all behind without taking action? I don't think so.

Second lets say that happens and the most impotents renegade persons("Name1") IP/pass/nick gets posted on UC, and someone from UC uses that to do damage to UC community. Now should "Name1" attack UC site, the server, the UC irc network, and attack ALL UC members even though they didn't do anything to "Name1"? I say NO, "Name1" should go after the person that got/posted/used the information to damage the UC.

Punishment should be directed at the person doing the crime and it should also fit the crime.

I appreciate my name being removed from your list of people to be attacked... however, I really don't feel ALL the other servers deserve to be attacked. I don't think there's anything I can say to convince you NOT to attack any servers and to stop trying to terrorize this humble little community. However, IF you really feel you have to do something, at least don't make EVERY server suffer for actions caused by only a few people. Choose your targets -- it will save you time in the end.

And just for future reference, if you attack anything to do with Blazer, you attack me. He doesn't have a server for you to exact revenge upon.

You can exploit/stop me if you want. I totally have no problem with you guys trying to stop me when I'm taking down servers. But the fact the I have been exploited of a VICTIM CASE (my passwords/ip being published public because GX wants to f*ck EAX/GU and me and tons of other people becoming the victim of that) is just sick and definitely if people go take advantage of that.

Thats what makes just go take revenge at all C&C Renegade servers. Just the fact that they are Anti-Cheat. And because all the people (except a few) on this forum are immature, ignorant and many other things.

And the more you keep saying that my information should be placed public, the more I keep thinking I'm doing a great job by taking the servers down.

You guys fucked me up by something I could not have been prevented (and I was the victim off) and now I go take down every server for something they did not do. Get it?

I attempted to do that once in another situation, and it only worsened. The only reason why he holds power, is because all of you chickenshits allow him to hold that power. If you don't care if your server is down, he can't piss you off, and if he doesn't piss you off, his goal fails.

That's what makes just go take revenge at all C&C Renegade servers. Just the fact that they are Anti-Cheat. And because all the people (except a few) on this forum are immature, ignorant and many other things.

And the more you keep saying that my information should be placed public, the more I keep thinking I'm doing a great job by taking the servers down.

You guys fucked me up by something I could not have been prevented (and I was the victim off) and now I go take down every server for something they did not do. Get it?

You're the most ignorant AND arrogant son of a bitch I have ever had the displeasure of talking to. Your exposure is due to one person, and one person only. Your idiotic self is then going to attack others because of that one person? You are a complete and total idiot. You have no common sense. Again, go ahead and act in your immaturity. You're "punishing" others for something one person did. Congratulations on being a complete asshole. If you find yourself to have a loss of a

What is so hard about both sides, (Cyberpunks side and the Ren community side), just dropping the whole thing? That would save alot more time than seeking revenge on each other. J_ball, as you said that he is a nuisance, this is what we could all do. It is an idea.

Cyber punk just leave the Renegade community and forget about all of this. Get a new ip/forget about ren passes and nicks if thats what they are.

And to the ren community, forget about all of them. If this community doesnt want them around, and they don't want us to be around. Then go your seperate ways. That is just an idea of mine. But like I have said, I have not been here in the past for all the past events with cyberpunk.

J ball you are the ignorant person here. You very much agree my information should be posted public. I see those persons as wanting me to be structured again. Why else want my information to be posted again online? So it's not one or 2 persons causing this, but many including you. I can't argue with you cause you always think YOUR right no mather what. Even in cases you are totally not, you go live inside your own little world were YOU always think your right. Just like on EAX were everybody could see I was right instead of you (instead of your little friends who also decided to mess around).

Funny how I actually present a valid argument. By doing so, that OBVIOUSLY makes me wrong.

I'm not ignorant. I see how it is. You are taking revenge on people who have done absolutely nothing to you, and you're damn right that I think your information should be exposed. All I'm saying is, I all the server owners didn't expose your IP, just nopic. Either attack nopic and get over it, or expect to be taken offline for quite a while.

Also, if I'm so damn ignorant, how come YOU'RE the one justifying attacking servers and creating cheats for no good damn reason? Answer that one for me, genius. Get a clue.

I don't care about my passwords/IP's no more. I would have no problem if they were posted on here. But then go do Damage THAT is the problem! Try to understand I don't give a f*ck about that half year old IP. The fact that Nightma12 logged onto my UC account and done much damage, made me go and get back however I could and do damage on great scale. Act without really thinking, like it is, let my rage control me. I made that decision and I stick to it. Whether You like it or not, whether I like it now or not. It's going to happen. It cannot be stopped now (don't even try to consider me just dropping this hole situation BECAUSE ITS JUST GOING TO HAPPEN!). Pure act of madness.

[quote title=CyberPunk wrote on Tue, 07 June 2005 16:08]The only reason I made cheats was out of revenge. I myself do not cheat to be good (I find this very boring).

So you dont cheat to do good yet you go and release videos of you cheating online in servers, obviously you get some pleasure from this. And why are you making cheats if you find the whole cheating part boring, that just doesn't add up in my mind.

Quote: For all the other servers, prepare for The Doom.

I see that you get more satisfaction in screwing up the entire renegade community then you do on just getting back the revenge you so state to be doing. I myself have not seen you attack these people in paticular you only do it as a whole so everyone has to suffer from it.

Quote: But 3 of my passwords being posted. I think sharing personal passwords of somebody else is already way out of line.

So your saying that since someone posted information that you know they cant do anything with since its an easy fix, change password and its solved no?

I really didnt want to get involved with this, but as a very involved member of this community i see that all your doing is taking the entire community out as a whole and not the people who deserve the treatment.

I ask you how crashing all the servers and spreading cheats will actually stop Nopic from posting your ip or passwords? It just doesn't add up when i hear someone say "I got attacked so now the entire renegade community will suffer from the few people that pissed me off.

I really think there can be legal actions that can be taken here since there are people paying thousands of dollers a year to maintain their servers and run them. But i dont know , i just think there are other things you can do that would justify as good punishment rather then attacking all of us.

Every time i play renegade the server crashes or there is some cheater with no name playing or your big nukes and all the other cheats which i cannot name simply because there are to many out there to remember. The game was already ruined so can you not just go play that other game you were talking about, because we have no need for cheaters to ruin the game more so then it already has been.

Quote:PS: The only thing that keeps driving me on, messing with servers, exploiting,... is most people's attitude around here.

Well you should take the time to think about how your attitude affects everyone else. First off you come here saying that the only thing driving you to do these things is the way people act towards you, but really what are you expecting people to do, praise you for what you have done? Isn't it enough having a site that you own that has everything to do with cheating? Dont you get enough respect on Uc that you dont really need to worry about how others think of you?

I really would like to ask you what the other people did to you, like nopic released a password which you probably changed that very second , nightma stole, and those are the only 2 people i see you mad at, though you blame all of wols servers for the actions of 2 people.

I just cant stand the fact that we all suffer from your own mistakes because you cant control yourself. You know just because you have anger and rage doesnt mean you have to take it out on the computer, you know you can always buy a punching bag to get rid of that stress, then you dont have to piss off thousands of people while doing so.

Im sorry if this comes off as me being the asshole, but i really didnt do anything to deserve not being able to play a solid game of renegade anymore. I Also did not do anything other then state my opinion on differnt angles that you could try to take other then jepordizing everything for a small amount of people.

Cyberpunk, you don't think about the person who plays in servers because he is a regular in them. Take the UN servers for example. They have done nothing to you, so why try to bring them down? Destroying all servers because 2 people made you mad isnt right. And I know that certain servers will make you pay if you do this to them. I won't say which ones, but heed my word.

CyberPunk today you have targeted amoungst others the EC AOW Server they have done nothing against you ever there was no justification for you doing this apart from seeing that it was fairly full. What you may not know is that this is a relatively new clan trying to get into this Renegade community and by doing what you have done you are stopping them completely. They struggled to get a box and now have and because of your spite you have been taking it down all day. Can you please make some kind of truce and target people you deem to be your enemies not people who have most people in their servers or this community will get even smaller than it is now. If you want to pick on someone try and pick on nopic or another one of your enemies please leave small clan servers alone.

You won't reach a truce with him. There is no common sense within that idiot's whole being. He was burned by 2 people, so he's decided to attack every server because of those two people. What's funny is that with all of you pleading for mercy, you're giving him power. It's like those fictional villians who feed off the cries and screams of his victims. The more damage he does, the bigger he gets. CyberPunk is just like that. The only reason why he holds any power over anybody is simply due to the fact that the people give him that power. You want to blame someone for his inflated ego? Blame past and present server owners for giving him that power.

Now, I know the last thing you want is to have your server down, but the only way to fully stop him is to make him bored. The only way you can make him bored is to make him realize how insignificant and powerless he truly is. If he doesn't piss you off then he fails at his goal. You give him no reaction, he'll get bored. Think about it this way:

You put up a small test server, and then learn how to crash it. Of course, this will be fun for the first few times you do it because you're just learning how. Now after the first few times, things get really boring. What's the point in taking down your server anymore? You've proven that you can to you and your friends, but now there's nothing that gives you a rush by doing it. Why is there no excitement out of it? Because there's nothing to gain from it. You can't get a reaction out of yourself or your friends, so what's the point? It's just a waste of time. Now, if you went and made other people frustrated because you're taking down their server, you have something to gain from it. You take away the reaction of the server owners, you then take away what you have to gain. You have nothing to gain, it once again becomes a waste of time.

See the connection? If you don't give CyberPunk a reaction, he has nothing to go on, and even he realizes that there's nohign to gain and is nothing but a waste of time. Stop giving him the desired reaction, and you stop giving him a reason to continue.

Cyberpunk is an E-Terrorist, if you show him weakness he will exploit it, not show mercy because of it. Don't reason with Terrorists, because they don't think logically.

It's just a matter of everybody giving him what he wants. 90% of the people here will either not understand this (even though I spelled it out as much as possible) or they will ignore what I have to say because they just don't want to realize that possibly the only way to get him to stop taking down servers is to let him take down servers.

Agreed. In my opinion, all this can be stopped very easily. Cyberpunk, who is taking out all his anger on all the wrong people, will soon regret it. The RenGen Team will soon have our Renegade servers up, and if Cyberpunk so as to dares to mess with our server, so god help his soul, he will regret it terribly. Just stop this nonsense. Cyberpunk, GO AWAY. LEAVE THIS COMMUNITY COMPLETELY. YOU SAY YOU HATE THIS COMMUNITY, LEAVE. AND SO GOD HELP YOUR SOUL YOU TOUCH ANY RENGEM SERVER OR ANYONE ELSE'S SERVERS BESIDE THE PEOPLE WHO DID THIS TO YOU, YOU WILL REGRET THIS TERRIBLY AND YOU WILL PAY. JUST LEAVE. Again, TOUCH ANY RENGEM SERVER, AND DIE.

You guys disgust me (I will probably receive many immature quotes on that line I just wrote by jball and so on. Little kids). Just saying how somebody is by only one way you seen him. His revenge side. Many people know the kind me, cheat as wel as anti-cheat who I helped out trough stuff.

And therefore I shall no longer even stick around on here because you are all immature (most of you).

And you guys will again try to make up nonsense stuff on this post of me because you people are immature.

Cyber, you calling someone immature is like Stevie Wonder calling someone blind... you are the most immature fuckup who ever set foot in Renegade. Quit starting wars and then acting like you were provoked. You weren't, it's all in your paranoid little head.... but until your mental age reaches double digits, I can't expect you to understand anything as complicated as this...

You still haven't answered my question, by the way. If Renegade is so dead, why do you spend every waking moment obsessing with it? Kinda sad, don't you think? But then, "sad" sums you up pretty well. I'm sure once the girls at school quit beating you up every day, you'll act with a little more maturity.

You call us immature because we disagree with your "revenge". That isn't "revenge", it's misguided rage. You're attacking others because your ego has been hurt by two (insignificant) members in the Renegade community. I don't know how you can't see this as immature. I'll even SUPPORT you if you seek your "revenge" on nopic and Nightma, but not this "revenge" on all the servers. You're an arrogant little fuck, and you can't even be the bigger person. You JUSTIFY your rage by claiming it as your "revengeful" side. How can you justify that? "McDonald's gave me a cold burger, so I killed everybody in the restaurant."

Makes me wonder how you cyberpunk can actually call anyone else here immature.

(not yet of full growth, not adult" and premature meaning "born too soon, not yet ready for life." The nouns are used technically: immature meaning "not behaving like an adult, being childlike or even childish," as in Her conversation was giggly, girlish, and immature, and premature meaning simply "too soon, before its time," used of all sorts of ideas, propositions, and the like, as in It was an ambitious plan, but premature)

Cyberpunk you should really read the meaning of words before using them, because far as i know you have followed this guideline very tightly.

You can seriously tell anybody here that were immature for responding to your ludacris awnsers, you just have to see it from our side not yours. You come here stating that your going to go do a full out attack on all of the renegade community, though only 2 people have done little to no harm to you in return. You clearly state this is just rage you have but you should really find another hobby to deal with your problem, dont take it out on game servers please.

You really should come back and state why exactly it is that your doing this, though i know you have siad 2 people pissed you off, but the real question is did it do any damage? Did it cause you to not be able to play a game you like?

I could care less if a few people pissed me off in a game, this is reality brother get the fuck outside and take a walk to deal with your stress, dont take it out on thousands of people.

Honestly, I don't give a fuck if he takes down all the servers. If he does, he's going to suffer consequences he will never have thought would happen to him. Go ahead and let him attack the servers. He'll be in a world of hurt if he does. It may or may not be caused by me, but who knows. If someone else doesn't do it, I sure as Hell will. Without Cyberpunk you only have a few lower grade cheat makes that only strive to make the perfect uncatchable cheat. However he strives to make the perfect mass destruction cheat.

I admit, I do enjoy the ones that are harder to catch, but I also enjoy Cyberpunk's cheats. It really shows those n00bs that yell cheater all the time what real cheating really is.

People think it is so horrible, but when it comes right down to it, I bealive that it is a wonderful way to relax. Catching them, hunting them, toying with them. I do not find UC to be a bad thing. There are a couple of the things' they do, like crash servers', and stuff I highly disagree with.

UC may find me to be a pain, but if they really looked at it. I am someone that has made them pull there efforts up to make better, and more undetectable cheats'. So we sorta "work together" in a way.

Why is it that everything you "discover" become a detriment to the entire community? Can you even name a way you have helped the community at all? It's funny how your common sense isn't common, as almost everyone in this thread agrees that you're a menace. But whatever, have your little fun destroying things that people put hard work into, I don't play this game anymore anyway. Perhaps someday you'll grow up and realize how stupid you actually are. do not judge the ren community on a few select people here....to think they are accountable for how arrogant or stupid anyone is in the ren community would be foolish.

and you cannot justify taking down servers and finding exploits, just because they are there....every game has loopholes, we know about them, but we've no need to spend time trying to find them. there are, however, some folk who feel they can play the game to the measure where they border on cheating (base APCing enemies with no barr, then just repairing and repeating, or gaining hundreds of kills on weak soldiers with that noob cannon rifle and being proud of it, etc) and they deserve a kick up the ass. apart from that we play honorably and I do not see how your rage can be directed at everyone by crashing their servers and trying to get people to cheat so that they ruin games and stray people away from the game. Ren is a great game, why do you try to ruin it? The most anyone could have done to you here is annoy you by killing you over and over in a game...why ruin it for all when it's only a few people you don't like.

Now the only thing is people want to run servers, put RG on it and leave it be. Make some players that nearly or never had any experience moderators and thats it.

And then there are these little kids: Spooky, Jball, Gbull.

I don't know whats wrong with these people, but whatever I say that makes common sense and they don't like it, they don't reply on it. Only on the stuff they could stand chance on... those things they bring up but nothing else. I got already got people telling at some posts it makes very sense.

And yet again, this reply (just about every reply) I will receive the same negative comments again and again and again from those three guys.

Stfu you guys I don't even read your stupid posts if I see them I just keep scrolling on cause it only contains bullshit.

The only thing that made me go on and keep to myself I will take all servers down is because of guys like this. I was even thinking to just quit it because of most people's reply. But then I see replies like those of Spooky & Jball which just aren't right and makes me go on no matter what. Hey, dumbass, you don't seem to realize that you're contradicting yourself in that post. Spooky is an admin of non00bs, first you call non00bs smart, because they were able to stop you and then you call his posts stupid? Yeah, that does make alot of sense CyberPunk -- do you have any response to the repeated requests to go after the ones who have stolen/acted on your stolen information, rather than all of us? Surely you've caused us more than enough hassle with the cheats you have released. I do agree with you that there are a lot of people who have NO business running a server. Servers are just so inexpensive these days that any idiot can afford one. But, there are many other respectable servers out there run by people who aren't assholes. They're just not posting here... though these are the closest thing to official forums for the game, the people who post here make up a very small percentage of the people still playing the game, and many people here are just here for the people and no longer play the game.

If Cyberpunk really wanted to help anything at all, he'd go 'discover' things the way Jonwil and SilentKane do; not go around the internet saying "omg renguard annoys me hlp plz hak around it."

Oh yeah, you want my IP too while we're at it? I'm thinking about putting up a server myself. I'll give you an IP as soon as you respond to the fact that two people (maybe five, tops, out of thousands) annoy you yet you persist in attacking everybody. You're like those teachers at school you hate, who punish the class when one dumbfuck talks out of turn.

While you clearly have difficulty stringing a coherent sentence together, I know what you're talking about.

You personally know Lurker? Really? What's his real name? Where does he live? What's his job? I actually can answer those questions, because I do know him personally... Oh dear, 2-0 to me...

Oh dear, someone called you a nasty name. Go down to the cellar and cry for a few more hours. Maybe get a hug from your parents, assuming you know who your parents are, which I think unlikely.

Just because you constantly act like a bitch and people flame you for it, doesn't mean they are to blame for the retarded stuff you do. This entire situation is YOUR fault, no one else's, even if you're too stupid to realise it. I know it makes you feel better to say it's everyone's fault but yours, but you're still full of shit...

about the comment sm1 made saying that i should of posted it in server owner section i cant the mods are refusing to give me access to what yet i should have access to i do own servers

stuffedreptile.com
night-stalkersclan.tk nightst.formulx.com
donaldrmcnatt.com

all point to 1 server web site mine

i can see the angle of which you are all looking at it cyber punk deserves this but yet i can also see why he is upset as everyone knows the forum/community does NOT like cheats thats just fine but on cyber ounks angle yah he fuked up ok he is just pissed cause no1 gave him a chance to apologise yet he proably wont but i also went down that road i used to cheat i hade to learn the hard way to but i did not go on by trying to get revenge ive just worked hard to try and reclaim my self by hosting server not cheating yes i do have some lapses every once in a long while i will admit that im just saying i didnt post his ip just to piss him off i did it to make a point i do own servers i should have access to that section if i had acces to that section the whole problem but entertaining thread

i do not want you to think i am still absesed bout the server owner section if that is what it sounds like i just belive in fairness and trust/forgiveness i kknow life is not sposed to be fair but i try to make it as fair as possible like yesterday sm1 asked me for a fds serail a asked a couple questions and finaly decided to say no then bout 30 mins l8er he imed me saying his was going to hack me and my servers so i did not go about it by hacking him though i thought about it i did not i just ignored him and banned his ip/nick from my website and servers thats all anyways ill let you go back to entertaining me with insaults all around

The server owners voted against you. It's not just me or 'the mods'... it's all of us. Those of us who run servers want a fun and FAIR game for everyone. Anyone or anything that hinders that goal is a bad thing to us and not welcome.

DoS attacks are very common but they are not a joking matter. In the US, they can be a serious federal crime under the National Information Infrastructure Protection Act of 1996 with penalties that include years of imprisonment, and many countries have similar laws. For example, Jeffrey Lee Parson, the 19 year old who wrote a variant of the Blaster worm and used it to attack 48,000 computers, was sentenced to 18 months in prison in January 2005, and may additionally have to pay a substantial fine. At the very least, offenders can lose their Internet Service Provider (ISP) accounts, get suspended or fired if school/work resources are involved, etc.

Im not sure if this would pass as the same thing as i dont have any experience in this area. But i do know for a fact there is some kind of legal action that can be taken for this type of thing.

Even worse of a penalty to some people, is the fact that they can ban you from being near computers or using them ever again, like a restraining order almost. Which would totally fuck over a college kid, or a loser.
