Where is it? I previously had ACK on my list, but now I have to read all his crappy spam again.
Can we have the ignore function back?

Plus there's a link to the ignore function in the user info above every post.

I'm highly impressed as well. I reported a couple bugs to them and they fixed them within hours. Simply amazing.

This isn't a nag Crimson, I'm just thrilled with these boards as well, which is why I would like to know how the forum skinnig is going, maybe apoc could lend a hand? Jake?

Good work so far though...

Still seems ironic the way names like FUD come full circle.

Year and a bit ago, we would have cursed that name into the ground.

Now we're worshipping it

Hmm, well, maybe someone may be interested. I don't know who would be able to do anything, or how much any of us would be able to help, but if Crimson is intersted, she can PM me, and I'll see who would want to help out.

You'd have to learn FUD Forums templating system -- it's quite complex... not an easy task.

I've got free time on my hands and plenty of ideas Old forum template was cool as hell, but perhaps new forums could use a few new templates to choose from as well IE: Nod, GDI complete themes custum icons and all, Westwood Theme would be cool.

Well, Zach, if you want to go all out, you can coordinate yourself with George. ...of course, Crimson would have to not have a problem with that.

Who's George?

Hydra. Not formerly known as hydra1945 Hydra, but another Hydra, so it's easier to call him by name. On the forums I think George is DethHydra, but I'm not too sure.

He is.

DethHydra that is,
