I dunno if its the right forum, but its about server/brenbot.

I remember, once there was brenbot (or a similar bot for renegade) with medals, very similar to the recommendations today.

Was it an older version of BR or is it another kind of bot? and does it still exist? cause i really liked that principle, especially for our sniper server.

Anyone knows more?

The only thing that sounds like what you are talking about is the "status" that DragonServ gives out to players. They would recieve elite, veteran status. Their heealt and armor would increase.

Well yeh, i dont mean those medals u see then ingame (like in the single player, those medals). They just distributed medals, like today recs, just got a better "rank" the more medals you got. :S Thats a long time ago... :S

Well anyway, this would be a suggestion for future BR/BrenBots/Renegade-Bots, a ranking system connected with the recommendation-system.
