This isnt the right sub-forum. Your looking for General Chat. But, it should be alright if i post some, so:

www.planetcnc.com
www.cncden.com I wouldnt rely on this one for very much www.cnccommando.com
www.cnc-source.com
Those are that i can think of right now.

Additionally, I'd say 99.9% of all existing skins don't work with RenGuard due to the chance someone may be trying to exploit something or other, such as making Stealthed units visible/more visible than usual, or things like that. In short, if you skin your Renegade's models. . .any one of them. . .you won't be able to play on RenGuarded servers anymore. But I guess that's not a problem if you stick to halfRenGuard and unguarded servers.

You can use skins on Full Renguarded Servers, just not Pure Renguard ones.

Damn you, gbull. You win this time.

But seriously, thank you for correcting me on that.

I know where you can get some skins.

<http://www.africancraftsmarket.com/animal%20skins.html>

http://www.i-fur.com/fur_rugs.htm reasonable prices!

I went for the sheepskin rug; reduced to $99 and great as a pillow when rolled up!

Now edit your original topic title to add "question answered", there's a good chap
