Is anybody having the same trouble I am getting into the Fist of Fate website? Out of either two addresses I use, I keep on getting errors, or am redirected somewhere else.

www.fof.deadlyfear.com
www.fofmod.com

Does anybody know what happened to them? TIA.

Everybody lost contact with genocide when the site went down. I quit because i dont have the time to do much aniamtions, ill work on it again if genocide contacts every1 and me and gets the ball rolling again.

It could of gotten active again now but i havent talked to any1 for a week or so.

Shush your mouths lol.

Alright guys Fist Of Fate is not dead at all, at the current time we are in a awkward situation becuase our domain has gone down and we cannot resume updates unless our domain is up, "fof.deadlyfear.com" so that is why there has not been any updates.

There have been 2 new character additions to Unadahms side and i have been working on some models myself, it did'nt help that i lost my internet connection a few weeks back but now Im back.

I wish for all the team members to still work towards Fist Of Fate's future, please. hold tight.

I am going to sort out a new domain and hosting if our domain "fof.deadlyfear.com" is not back online within a week.

I will post here for further information in the future.
