hi

when i go renegadeserver.westwood.com for the serial # of my FDS, it says:

Nick Name	Result	Comment
-----------	--------	---------

ishotyaaa	FAILED	The nick name is not a Westwood Online Nick.

how come it says this i ve been trying for 2 days.

If I'm right all serials are taken, someone made a script that took around 50.000 serials. You have to ask if someone has a serial left.

Here's a question. Why do you need a Dedicated Server in the first place? There are already at least twenty or thirty dedicated servers online Westwood or GameSpy at any given time which cover everything. C&C Mode, Marathon, Infantry-Only, Team Deathmatch mode, Capture the Flag, Sniper Arena, InstaGib, Co-Op mode(more or less), and even a couple of "RPG" servers. Yes, I know there's no real way to run BRenBot in non-dedicated mode(feel free to correct me if I'm wrong), and yes, I realize that sometimes you just don't want to be in-game all the time, but seriously. There are more than enough servers out there at any given time. Plenty. No matter what you might "do differently," chances are, it's been done.

. . .urge to kill. . . Rising. . . twitch twitch

Someone lock this god damned topic before I go apeshit on the next moron to post. I swear, I'll do it. I mean, yes. It's nice and lovely that people are actually using the Search function and all, but they're obviously not using it well enough!
