hi, as you know u banned me...fair enough...but i have 2 versions of renegade in my house due to my cd breaking last year, so can u allow me to play on my other serial plz? i dont actually know what u guys ban wen u ban from renguad, wether its the ren sserial, mac address, xp serial code, ip, or even all of those put together...could u let me know if i can play under my old serial?

The renegade serial hash and the nickname are banned. So if you play with your old renegade and with another nickname, all will be ok. Now don't let the bypassing happen again, mister!

He means that donation can get your ban off. It seems hones to me.

And did you change names too or where you stupid enough to try to login with the same name, so it also banned your new serial?

i changed my name from DeMoN#GW to ToM#GW and it came up with the same message, new cd key..still banned..plz can u just unban me >< thats like 2 cd keys i acnt use now..and i didnt even get banned for a good reason, if i was actually cheating or trying to bypass renguard i would swallow and accept it, BUT I DIDNT DO NOTHING!!!!!!

and tbh i will agen say, im not really going to donate to a program that i cannot use also mac, ive read all the topics, why u always ask ppl for money? what can u do with money? nothing, its software u can make, u dont have to buy it do you? we have to buy the game and when u get banned for nothign u get pretty pissed of tbh. im all guns blazing for anti cheats, but if anti cheating has come to the point its costing players money all the time...not being able to use anti cheating software, its not for the good. it seems like u ban ppl to get them to donate money to u..but thats my opinion, what are your view on this hm?

tomten told me to speak to u and said u might be a nice guy about it, but i havent seen anything so far...he said its stupid to get banned for what i got banned for..and he used to be on the rg team.

BTW, r u in KosS, coz i used to play against them, like a yr ago they were pretty good, what are they like now?

TBH i wish i never registered on this forum this morning, coz id be playing a cw atm..

The details of our banning is a secret, but as many people have figured out, changing serials doesn't do any good.

RenGuard is not a cost-free project. I pay hundreds of dollars from my own pocket every month to keep up the servers for this forum, the BHS website, the RenGuard website, and the RenGuard servers that you connect to when you use the program.

why dont u just make urself a server form ur isp webspace then...it doesnt cost anything that way, 8 mb bband 950gb webspace a month costs £25.00. that way u pay 25 pounds a month not hundreds...plus i think ur exaggerating a bit..100s of dollar would make u broke, because u dont make money from less ppl cheating.. anyway can u just plz unban me, i dont know how u ban ppl from rg, but its a pretty cool way, coz i dont no anyone that knows, it could be anything, even banning the mac address, but i cud easily change that and find out.but... i havent really done anything wrong tbh so can u plz unban me?

can u please give me ur msn address in private message so i can talk to u easier please?

btw nice avatar

The RenGuard master servers use a lot of processor, plus we need multiple servers to ensure redundancy. And no, I'm not exaggerating on the cost. For all the servers that I run, it costs me about $500 US per month. I have three servers, all of which are used by BHS tfor one purpose or another. Do I profit off this? Hell no. I make pretty decent money as a web developer and I pay the money to keep Renegade alive and to learn by doing.

Yes, I am a captain of TheKOSs now, kinda like the 2nd in rank.

We are still around, evolved more into a public server kinda clan but still pretty good at CW's. We have our own server on Euro WOL now. Normally you can find us at www.thekoss.com but due to technical probs, you can find mini-forums on www.thekoss.tk for the time being.

As for all this: I think someone should start listening to this guy and maybe take the ban off? It's a bit lightly given... and I think demon will think twice now .

12 miles in under 12 minutes? You must be a runningback because a lineman couldn't do it. Unless your me. 5:30 mile time as an Offensive guard my Senior Year. Second Fastest in the State. Too bad I was also one of the smallest....

On another note. DeMoN is harmless. And he did apologize for the way he acted and Im sure he and no other people he knows will do it ever again. And he knows the consequences if he does. Maybe you could extend Amnesty day to him?

thanx for backing me up i know it sounds hard yeh..but wen we fitst started doing it 3 years ago we was running the 2 miles in around 13/14 minutes, but now we have done it for 3 years we have become more adapted to it. it gets easier as you do it more, plus, if u dont do it under 12 mins u dont get to play matches, so theres an incentive!! The deal is its 3200 (2 miles) and we have to run round a 400 metre track 8 times, so its 3200 metres (2 miles) so its 1 minute 30 seconds every lap, if u break t down into small pieces it aint that hard :D:D

btw, its not football as u mean it, its soccer to u, i think ur american? well im english. !!

anywayz, what is amnesty day? lol ^.^

Your team must be a tough one then. Take that from a Michigan State Semi-Finalist. Shoulda been State Champion but we got fucked by a ref on a 4th and 4(on the 4 yd line) with 36 seconds left situation.

LoL, i didnt get banned for cheating, thanks to someone on this forum i am now classed as a cheater in some peoples eyes, and all i did was say i had screenies of people who could bypass renegade, me n tec got banned for it. oh well sad thaats what renegade has come to, ppl that dont get out enough (who cant actually admit that) who just sit on their ass all day b4 and after work (even if they have a jeb, hell with that, they probly work on pcs too!) then come to the ppl who enjoy 1 1/2 hours on a pc a day to play ren and have fun, ban them and sit there and act cool, id love to meet some of these ppl in real life.

[09:48] Message from RenGuard: You have been banned by Crimson on 28.07.2005 08:39:46 for DeMoN#GW: "i have ... all the bypasses. i would show u but i thoguht what if something like this happened." guess what? It did.. Goodbye.

SEE? ' I WOULD SHOW U' to be honest i cant even actually use he bypasses, i only have screenshots of others using them, i would show u who they were if u wudnt of banned me :/

note how in the ban message it says "i have ... all the bypasses" and then later on you say "i only have screenshots" Key word: have.

But despite that, you're the guy who says he had bypasses as you can see in the ban message. So clearly insulting the person who (oh my god) read your message correctly, is a bit of a stupid move. Especially when it's your fault in the first place...

forbid, you know what you're talking about otherwise you'd have made a dumbass out of yourself oh wait.

And can you explain to me how I'm trying to act cool ? If by cool you mean going to a forum and asking to get unbanned whilst insulting the people and then making another topic saying you were sorry. Well then I guess I have to say I'm not that cool.

Oh and by the way.. how is that considered "english"

Awww... what a shame. I actually was going to remove the ban. Now I think you'll have to wait a few more days for this little temper tantrum. It's me sitting on my ass at my "jeb" all day at my PC that allows me to pay for the servers that keep RenGuard up. But you probably wouldn't understand that, seeing as how your mommy and daddy still support your pathetic ass.

First, you withhold information and brag about it.
Then, you insult us multiple times and demand to be unbanned.

This is not how it's working.
