Does anyone have this pack? I'm looking for some sound files I remember finding years ago and I think they are in this pack anyone still got them?

I have the 30mb zipped version. It's mostly a pack of low quality and cheesy dialog.

Anyway, if you want old some old models, go here:

Aircraftkiller has plenty of still unreleased Renegade content (the original Nod Apache for example), but it seems like he prefers to keep them as captive.

It isn't corrupt.

I opened it fine.

I get a file of a little more than 3kb and it's damaged...

Any other links?

Can any of the mods PM me Naamloos' IP so I can check if it's on the blocked IPs server list?

Uhhh... I don't think I'm 'blocked' or anything because I could download other things in the past from there without problems.

I had trouble downloading too, I was getting a file about 300KB. But I tried again a few more times and it worked.

How could it be that Aircraftkiller is the only one that has this Original Nod Apache, and he doesn't even play the damn game anymore. If only he wasn't so stubborn, im sure we could have used that a good 3 years ago.

Like Damn, i wonder what else he has, probably all stuff the renegade community will never see anyways, Like what does he do, jerk off to these models?
ooooh nice curves.

FFS... You don't even Mod this game anymore and you're still bitching about it?! GET OVER IT. He already gave you more than enough for you to waste. Go play with that.

So he speaks for the entire community? i think not. I would personally like to see what westwood intended the public mappers to have since thats what they were originally sent to him for was to share to the modding communtiy. But not even 3 years later he decides to reveal what he has hidden beneath the thick ice since the cavemen roamed earth.
