Renardin was kind enough to share this "skills" video with us over at Reborn. Apparently his friend intended it to prove he doesn't cheat, yet somehow he's capable of shooting a meter to the left of somebody's ear for a kill => We'll ignore the lack of skill evident by the n00bjet use and entirely-removed scope.

Hmm... No cheats, eh? Unless the Clear Scope is a cheat, then i believe him. Y'know, aside from the fact that he shot about, as Chrono put it, a meter from someones ear, and killed them. A few of them looked like lag kills, and fewer were actual SKILL kills. Other than that, no, that was definate either cheating, or somethin. And what kind of Engineer gets out of his Mammoth, and doesnt repair while moving, or atleast BEHIND the damn thing?

Who are you to say RamJets are cheating?

They are more powerful so just because you get pwned by em, dont come here and bitch about it.

Listen here, Skippy. Everyone has, at one point, used the Ramjet. This does not imply that everyone cheats. I use the Ramjet when my team has taken over the enemy base, like, say, we have atleast 4 tanks in there, and they aint doin so hot against them. At that point, yes, i may consider using it just for the basic infantry that scurry around. Since you has that using the Ramjet is cheating, are you saying that cheat, because i rarely use it? If so, then why havent i been caught by Renguard? Crimson can possibly vouch for me on this, the most illegal thing ive had, was a bunch of skins that werent allowed by Renguard.

Now dont complain about the fuggin Ramjet Rifle, especially if you get killed by one. The people who use it put themselves and their Credits at risk by using it, since it fires fuggin tracer rounds. If you think that they should be considered cheating because they use the overly powerful Sniper weapon, then i have but one thing to say to you: Nobody cares.

The word n00bjet is just a lameass excuse for people who are using a 500 and die. Boo fucking hoo, at least blame lag or something. Yeah they're over powered, but not against infantry. Clearscope isn't a cheat. So what if it's a slight advantage, bright skins are, sbh skins are, having a faster computer is and there are more things. Big deal, accept it.

Well put, i often get told i cheat cuz i NEVER lag.
I ha ve a very powerful comp so what, its not cheating, and yes even i use the ramjets, even though i think 500 are better.

Not every person who dont have renguard cheats.

You didn't answer his question, nor explain the fact he can shoot WAY to the side of a player for a kill in a relatively lagless situation.

PS: All you dumbfucks who think only losers call ramjets n00bjets have clearly never played with the people I have. Generally it's the n00bjets who suck ass, hence they use n00bjets to try to compensate. They do not "own" people, and I cannot even really consider ANY kill with a n00bjets "owning" somebody. "LOL I PWNED YOU I SHOT UR HAND" Wow. Skillz. Right there. "LOL I TOOK A RAILGUN SHOT AND LIVED! SKILLZ!" No.

N00bjets users chronically suck ass. They do nothing but steal kills from people who would deserve them, and encourage suck-ass performance.

Let me mention it is better against light vehicles than a damned railgun. And it shoots faster, scopes, and has great range.

Homey wrote on Sun, 28 August 2005 00:13 Yeah they're over powered, but not against infantry. Clearscope isn't a cheat. So what if it's a slight advantage, bright skins are, sbh skins are, having a faster computer is and there are more things. Big deal, accept it.

90% of players consider removing the black border from a weapon that's already overpowered a cheat. It adds even more overpowered-ness especially against infantry which are smaller targets and therefore harder to target. 90% of players consider bright skins, solid-color-player-heads, and sbh skins cheats. In fact, I daresay only players who don't use them themselves consider purposely-bright SBH skins cheating, because when cloaked even at visible range, only about 30% of an SBH is visible. The bright, solid skins make that be 100%. Many server owners have a special way to deal with it: they kick or ban a player.

Having a faster computer shouldn't be a huge issue. You can play this game FINE on a 1ghz computer with a not-even-32mb vid card. I did it all the time before I got my current system with a whopping (lol) 64mb video card. Sure, sniping during a flame tank rush will be harder, that's true! But compared to the skins intended to outright imbalance things and render camo and dark colors useless, that's in no way a cheat.

Hey, I know! By your logic, having better coding skills and creating your own hacks is just another advantage a player brings with them to the game huh? Just like those who recolored the player heads bright red, and those who made SBH 75% more visible.

Making the boundaries that are shootable around a character's head and making your weapon have a wider blast area would definitely count as a cheat, too.

it's an anti-material rifle, meant for piercing through light armor. It's not over powered against vehicles at all.

The fact that you can run and jump and dance in front of the other team while firing off 4 shots in a few seconds from a 50cal rifle is slightly over powered, don't you think?

"Still using 500?" It's not something you work your way up to. People who have a hard time landing headshots generally buy havocs more often. People who land them more easily buy 500s because it's the more sensible choice.

There's only one sniper rifle in the game. If I'm going to snipe, that's what I'll use.

Renegade can't run renegade worth shit on a 1ghz, well I really only play in the larger servers anyways. So every played that uses a ramjet is a n00b and steals kills, there's that bullshit logic again. Also while you're at it people prove to me chrono how 90% of the players out there think clearscope is a cheat. I wouldn't use it if I wasn't stuck with this 15" monitor but when I had a 19" I noticed no difference in my gameplay and how many people I killed with or without it. So there's another lame ass excuse. I'm glad you agree with me about the SBH skins because I think it's bullshit when you're seen from almost triple the distance of the original. Anyways bickering about how clearscope is such a huge advantage is horse shit, simply because it's not a huge advantage. Many people use them, it's not going to change much.

Well renx I only think they're over powered on air vehicles, others are fine, well they get way too many points for shooting heavy armour vehicles though.

PS chrono i'd love to see you join fnfall and see how you do anyways, you seem pretty arrogant about yourself.

Oh and don't think i'm a ramjet whore, I just use whatever, either way i'll get headshots. The people that I love the most are the ones that say n00bjet and body shoot with a 500 sniper, it's just pointless. Or the ones that say n00bjet and 5 minutes later you see them with one.

Edit: Just thinking, chrono is going to come back and basically repeat himself with different words or something. Only way to settle it is a good ol game of rene.

I totally disagree, I don't mind at all someone getting mass kills with a ramjet just by bodyshotting everyone, but they are WAY overpowered against light armour vehicles considering how easy they are to use.

The thing is, say I've got an artillery on Field. Some guy rushes me with a med tank. If he's really good in a med, he'll duck and dodge with the med, use cover to his advantage, and probably kill my art. On the other hand, if he's an average player, I'll kill his med in ten seconds flat and probably come out with 75% of my armour intact.

A havoc on the other hand. The absolute worst player in the world does exactly as much damage as the best player. They have infinite range and even if you got the game five minutes ago you can't miss an artillery. That's why when someone says ramjets don't take skill and a ramjet-user disagrees or says "you just got owned deal with it" they're just making themselves look fucking stupid.

Exactly. See, that's why we think they're fuggin retarded. They do way too much damage to vehicles, ESPECIALLY aerial units, and the scout vehicle, their one of the easiest to use weapons, their range is ungodly, and if you're using them and kill someone, you should expect a quick response. I mean, come on, no friggin real weapon could be made like that! At least not a damn rifle.

Renx is right, the firing speed on that damn rifle is WAY too fast.

Chrono90% of players consider removing the black border from a weapon that's already overpowered a cheat. Yep. Removing that border is rather stupid, since it doesn't obstruct much of your view, and you can just zoom out if you really need to. Yeah, the bright skins are also stupid. Who the hell needs to try to show off his skills via a skin? And yes, also the bright head skins. I found a Deadeye one, that turned him into a friggin walkin Green Screen! Neon green, and it covered his vest, legs, and part of his head. Needless to say, that's one of my most hated skins. Besides, it's ugly.

A high powered rifle like that should fuck up a light armored vehicle pretty easily. Then again so should another tank...

Would make more sense if the ramjet did as much damage to vehicles as the 500 does, then the 500 did barely anything.

I honestly dont think hes cheating.

These never ending arguements are so damn stupid...

If clearscope was a cheat and everyone thought it was a cheat it wouldnt be aloud on renguard.

And this n00bjet shit is fuckin retarded its a weapon in the game. it costs twice as more to buy then the regular sniper and it gives that blue tracer when it fires. I think thats enough to make up for it doing alittle more damage then the regular sniper. Who cares if you get killed by someone with it. Go spend the money and buy one then kill them. If you dont wanna spend 1000credits then dont bitch about getting owned.

And Chrono i remember very clearly back in the old days in the mutant server you would own a shit load of people early in the game with a deadeye but then once someone finally killed you you would always switch to the sakky or havoc.

(P.S omfg your girlfriend posts on your computer game forum thats fucking awesome, YOU HOLD ON TO THAT!)

No way in hell it should do more than PIC/Rav, Mobius/Mendoza, or Gunner though, especially since all of the above have disadvantages the ramjet doesn't (PIC/Rav reload time, Mobius/Mendoza crappy range, Gunner rockets can be dodged... ramjets have none of the above, their range is as long as you could possibly need it to be, rapid fire/reload, and hits instantly)

It should be about half as effective against vehicles as the above weapons, instead of about three times as effective as it currently stands

Fucking hell, you people saying it's just lag--- NO.

I played with 20 fps back in the day or worse. FPS doesn't suddenly allow you to shoot to the side of somebody for a kill! Hits are detected client-side as far as I've ever been aware, hence why bighead works.

The FPS is lower only because of the recording, but the ping and SFPS and KBPS are FINE throughout the entire movie. Who here has ever seen somebody slowly walking along a wall? Or killed them? That's called a lag kill, and you still have to HIT them according to your system for it to count. If you miss them, it still counts as a miss.

the only problem with, say, lowering the damage for the ramjet is that they won't be able to do anything against a copter. for example, a deadeye won't kill a copter if the copter is somewhat good. Though it wouldn't be that bad of an idea because then it would be copter versus copter - but you'd be screwed if your team doesn't have a decent copter. It takes two reloads to kill a copter with a ramjet, or two ramjets - moving it to three reloads would probably give no chance to the sniper. Although of course it'd be better for me if teh sniper damage was lowered to be honest it doesn't mean much. The only problem is Walls_Flying because you're going to see mostly 3 snipers and it's pretty impossible getting by.

I agree with you, people walk into walls, regardless you have to hit the player or else it won't count. Renegade isn't like the battlefield games where you have to anticipate where the player is going to be. You have to hit them.

Yeah fraps does make the game lag weirdly but not like that. Really I can't tell if he's cheating for sure, but it sure as hell isn't right. Maybe spoony can clarify what bighead bones is for me :/

I would really like to see these logs myself cause from what i see, that could easily be Big head box cheat being used. There is a large number of shots i can see where the rectile did not even light up yet a perfect headshot is registered on the Stealth black hand especially. As well a few snipes against other sakuras did seem odd, but i do realize while recording with fraps, it may not always display things correctly to the viewer. I Can't see why you would go and ban Chronojam for thinking someone cheated thats pathetic that you don't allow someone to have their own opinion on your forums. If anything id like to see the original video file so i could run some tests lol.

Put yourself in his shoes when he was video taping that movie. If he was actually using cheats then he would know that he was. There for he wouldnt put a clip where it looks like hes shooting slightly to the right of the sakkys head in the video.

Am i right? The guys not cheating he just owned a few people...Who the fuck cares...i mean honestly...

ok... i think i made lot of problems with my video.

1st: i did this video cause i just had "FRAPS" and that i wanted to use it, and try to make my first "movies"

after that, it's true i use clear scope (that i took at cnc ammo long time ago) , i diidn't consider it as a cheat (like big head or anything of that kind) and i never hided the fact that i was using it (as u can see in the video) (and for some funny reason i thought it was better for the style to put head shot video than video of me being sniped to death...)

2: im not that good, i know it, and i don't care(if i really wanted to prove something i wouldn't have put video with some stand still or zoom head shot)(the easier to record). i didn't do this video to prove anything so what's the problem, no one like head shot? who am i bad with by making this video? those who complain are not even in it..

3: i don't use anything else than clear scope. no aimbot lol or things like that. nothing can prove it, so whatever it's the same for evryone no? if i had aimbot i would surely say something like " HEY

chronojam!! u looking for shit?? u wana snipe me???? 1VS1!!!!!" (but i keep that for sniperde7 ^^)

4 if some time u feel i shoot not in the head, maybe that's cause this movies was recorded with 30 frames/sec (i think) to lower the weight of the files. after that it's true that making the video slow u'r game a little. anyway i do'nt have to give any special explanation i just recorded the game that's all...

5: if clear scope is considered as cheat evry skin should be too (it was in the skin area at cnc ammo) (like poeple who see stealth unit in a blink of an eye). but since i not play on a pure server i don't know where is the problem.

6:i don't know why guys such as chronojam say that kind of thing to me. i don't even know u,... or maybe i sniped u b4?

7: it seem that u all really enjoyed my video(lol) so i arrengeed it with music and all... (you'll love it chrono) u can see it here http://media.putfile.com/SansTitre_000573 it's what i wanted to do at the beggining...

ho, and finnaly i would agree to a dual with u chronojam on a pure server. i don't have anything to prove, but i never say no to some fun . (to have a big mouth like that, u must be the kind who play well and evryday...)(but i'll have pleasure to record an head shot with u, even if it's only one ^^)

8: if someone don't like the video... cause it's bad... : it's like a bad movie... u don't watch it. renardin thought it would please me to put the video so whatever he was acting as a friend what's bad with that?? even if i didn't like something i wouldn't post on a forum saying "hey hey hey this guys sux, he got aim bot, he got clear scope, he got lag, he got low fps,he got a stealth tank again, he mrl point whore, he's sniping only soldier who are walking straight....he suxxxx" lol really...who care? who got enough time to be so mean? lol (got the answer) ok i think that's all... i'll try to reply if ther's need.

one last things: im not (i know it) one of tha best player, far of it... but i'll always be there for team work on this game i like. ...and when ther's team work,ther's tha difference.

[Dead-6]DarKside... the french guy, u like it or not.

First of all, who would make a video to prove that he doesn't cheat and actually cheat on it? I know Darkside, he's a damn good sniper, and he would not record a movie where he cheated.

To whoever mentioned the word "n00bjet": Go eat a banana.

The Ramjet is a bit overpowered against Copters, but that's another story.

First off in regards to him cheating he is running a clear scope so as far as I am concerned the debate stops there and he is cheating.

As for the power of a ramjet, I could go on for paragraphs about how it's not overpowered but I don't have the time or the energy for that.

With the clearscope, I think he's only cheating by removing the black area -- he's able to see more while zoomed than normally. Removing the green tint just removes the most annoying part of sniping ever.

Renardin has taken this topic I've posted here as grounds to ban me from the Reborn forum, without consulting the rest of the team he's part of. Let's give a cheer for Renardin.

[Dead-6 Guy i didn't do this video to prove anything so what's the problem, no one like head shot?

"Renardin" My mate Darkside, people think he cheats. So he made the video:

http://media.putfile.com/SansTitre_000252

Pure ownage!

Somebody is lying to us. I would call making a video in response to being accused of cheating to acquit yourself as 'doing a video to prove something' ...

And YES, people do consider certain kinds of textures CHEATING. See also "stealth skins" and "bright red heads" and "neon enemy snipers" ... Saying people don't frown on this (outright lies!) does not make what you do any better, and it makes it worse since you had to lie about it anyway.

And no, you've never killed me, I've only seen you in a server maybe twice. And I don't do 1v1. 1v1 is gay. Refer to my sarcastic "omg 1v1" post.

what does it have anything to do with "hammer head sakura" i killed? if u think clear zoom it's a cheat ok. i'll accept it. but don't say things like i use aimbot or things like that (it makes me feel pretty strong lol) ho and u were talking about successive head shot... if u look well on the time of the map u can see it's not right after(i don't use only noob jet)... it's what we call make a movie....some moment of the map i puted together....

i wanted to do this video i explained why on the post why. if it could show people i not cheat it was cool with me. but now i get treated of cheater... nah really who are u against with? me or the one u can't smell renardin?

anyway is the problem here really? in u'r question? u lost argument?

i admit some was lucky head shot anyway... the problem is not here ...

Have you downloaded the video and watched every kill frame by frame? Download it and watch it frame by frame. Pay special attention to when the ammo count gets decremented. If the reticle is red at the same time, then it's a hit. If it's not, then it's a miss. Obviously, if it's a hit in thin air...

I have yet to do it myself because the movies are in wmv format, which has no real player and no real editor for free. Fuck you for that, Mr. DarkSidE. Get me an AVI version and I can try it myself.

I think something is vastly wrong with collision detection on your system, as I have never seen such awful collision detection. I've seen this game played in tons of conditions by tons of players, and played under tons of conditions on tons of servers. I have missed kills by mere pixels of distance, but you can go an entire on-screen inch away and manage to earn a kill. This fact leads me to believe something is wrong with your client, or it is loading the wrong data. I believe your client is purposely using incorrect data in order to provide an unfair advantage.

I notice you said the word aimbot a few times, I never did say it though.

on the reborn forum u said that :

<http://cncreborn.planetcnc.gamespy.com/forum/viewtopic.php?t=594&postdays=0&postorder=asc&start=0&sid=1a390ecccc6496bfccb9b39d6f0f935f>

Ah. So first, he uses a n00bjet. That's my first tipoff that he's not good.

Second, he's zooming with the n00bjet. Wow. I can't believe the skills he has. It's incredible.

Third, not even just taking off the green, but removing all of the black? Come on, niggatron!

Fourth, killing a Raveshaw, while zoomed in that close, with a n00bjet.. HE f*cking MISSED THE FIRST SHOT EASILY... Then shot to the side of the engineer for a kill? This after shooting far to the right of the sakura for a kill.

Actually, that's because your friend is USING A CHEAT! Note the relative position of his weapon to the kill in each shot. Notice that laterally, he always tends to have a bigger target? Instead of a round head, all the heads have an invisible BUT COLLISION DETECTING boundary existing in a rectangular prism.. think of how a hammerhead shark looks versus any other shark. Your friend is essentially attacking hammerhead humans, but the 'hammer' is invisible.

The deadeye versus sakura shot CLEARLY shows this, undeniably. I think I'll provide this link on Renforums so that everybody can ban this jackass. If I ever see him in any of the servers I mod or temp-mod in, he's gone.

Then, he shoots behind a sakura for a kill.. heh.

And then he shoots FAR to the side another sakura isn't even warping to, and gets a kill. This is after the APCs.

THEN shoots FAR to the right of a black hand sniper.

Then even FARTHER to the left of a sakura.

The n00bjet headshot versus the non-warping SBH is ridiculous as well.

The reticle isn't even red when he 'headshots' the black hand in the tunnel, and it's nowhere near the target.

f*cking cheater your friend is.

sorry i talked about aimbot it's the only way with big head i heard about to cheat... but as u can see in u'r other post ther's lot of cheating talk no? (my my im right!!)

second u liar now u say my comp is the problem.. i purposely tryed to change the data or something...(LOL WE ARE NOT IN A MOVIE OR MATRIX) u change u'r mind all the time man.... i got a normal computer a normal game ... and now u making excuse of this ??? is that u'r reason???? u came so far for this???? to tell me my data is fucked up so i got advantage or something.... lol....man....

Holy fucking shit. Not to flame you outright, but you are incredibly retarded. I can't help but flame you for your second batch of triple posting and lack of comprehension. Holy SHIT you are stupid. Okay, there, that's done. Business time. Actually you'll be flamed as I go along, because you've earned it.

You're right, jackpipe, we're not in a movie or the Matrix. We're in a world where our C&C games will load local data in preference to monolithic MIX formatted files. That includes cheating aids of several sorts. Including your precious 100%-clear-scope, unless somehow you figured out how the fuck to add it to the always.dat MIX.. and I'm pretty sure you wouldn't know how and wouldn't be able to even if I wrote it up in 4 languages, including in picture-book form.

I haven't changed my damn mind a single time. I say you're a cheater here, I say you're a cheater there. You have Renardin's same psychological disorder where you think that just because I post the SAME THING TWO PLACES that suddenly it means I've changed my mind. What the fuck kind of thinking is that?

A normal computer and normal game eh? Which of many processors is normal to you? Which OS? Which version of Renegade.. CP1? CP1 beta? RenGuard in there? Nonstandard skins? I'm nitpicking here, I know, but it's still a valid point-- you clearly have an entirely different experience when you play than anybody with the "normal" game, meaning freshly installed and patched up to current WW/EA versions.

To follow your erratic, fucked speech... mi'r reason for all of this is that you are a cheating slut and made no effort to hide it, while at the same time claiming you don't cheat and offering this video up as proof. Hell, Renardin even offered it up as proof for you, vouching for you. Then you tried to say it's not meant to prove anything. So one of you must be lying right there.

And no, I don't suck. I will say on a whim that I am way the hell better than you, and I bet most people would believe that even without seeing us play simultaneously. And Kanezor is NOT my friend either =P He's a little n00bjet fanboy, right Kanezor? ^_-

Edit: The movie? No. Sure, CS has collision detection fuckups. Renegade DOES NOT. Hell, Renardin even cites Renegade's excellent collision detection for why he plays it instead of playing CS!!

and u'r talking about renardin again lol... it look how much rageous u are... man... what happened between u2? ho and sorry i never actually posted on a forum... so i don't know the rules... if 3 msg are spamming im sorry then... but im sure "YOU"r the only one who's concerned with that video, and nearly the only one who complain about it. fine, think whatever...

but u know it better than me : u'r wrong. and u won't admit it.
i admitted for the zoom reticle cause i was not hiding it. but u? won't u ever admit that u'r wrong on this?

the only fact is : i use reticle zoom . and u do all that for this and nothing else... (maybe cause renardin is my friend too lol) anyway we 're getting nowhere...do as u wish.

i just hope u liked the video anyway... isn't the boink sound great?

Open the videos in Windows Movie Maker, it will allow you to view the WMV files frame-by-frame.

You'll note that he does miss about four or five times...

But, when he kills, the reticle was either red on the same frame that the ammo ammount changed or was red on the previous frame (indicating that the shot fired between frames, possibly?)

In my opinion, he either has excellent reflexes and is NOT cheating (well, except for the questionable clearscope skin), or is using a clickbot.

It's notable that he does seem to have a fair amount of lag though... but as you'll note in the FPS part of the movie, his ping is about 250-300. Being from France, that's understandable.

If you do not have Windows Movie Maker but would like to "obtain" it, please contact me privately.

You banned him for personal reasons that aren't against the rules and were not approved by the team. The reason was a biased one you made based on emotions that occurred since you took ChronoJam's accusing personally when it's not a personal thing and happens to people all the time. You never see him or me banning people left and right when someone says "gom chrono hax" or "i dnt believe u haxer lawl". You need to be a bit more professional in your choices and less prone to playing an obscured leader role when you willingly gave that title up in favor for a more artistic role.

PS: You insult my best friend all the time, and it's on purpose too. Perhaps you should start practicing what you preach?

i won't say renardin was right by banning him. i won't.

but:

"i would have done the same thing for a friend "I KNOW" he doesn't cheat".

maybe not the right decision i know. but for me someone messing with my friend is like someone messing with me. i don't know how is it where u are but where i live it's like that.

if u think renardin banned him only for that think about it... i don't know all the story. im not either with renardin or chronojam on this story... but i just took the fact that chronojam was saying wrongs things about me that's all.

and he even want to ban me from server. by the way my wol account is d8a8r8k . if u want to ban me b4 i even come...

even if renardin maybe took the wrong decision, he did it for me. and for that... i can say he's a true friend.

Wow cool stuff there. Darkside see as me that you(CJ) always ignore the questions and bring other bullshits...

I banned chrono, that's it. I warned him. He didn't listen. End of story.

I don't hate him, I prefer him away of our project for some good reasons I don't need to explain. He knows why. Now he can dance, cry, bash, talk... I don't care as long it's away from the project I work on.

(The main reason anyway: I don't like you)

He doesn't "cry" and "bash", he brings up good points. I am really getting tired of you belittling anyone who ever questions the artistic choices made for Reborn. It's not professional at all. Not only that, but you really can't make ad hominem attacks online and seem intelligent; you can't know someone deep enough to make attacks when all of your knowledge is limited. All of the things you know are based on forum posts which regard artistic choices made for Reborn, so attempting to personally attack someone will only make you seem arrogant in the end. It will make you look worse than the person you're trying to attack, not better.

19 hours after I posted here, you warned me not to post here. And now you're using that as an excuse to ban me without the consent of the rest of your supposed team, of which you are the texturer.

A real man doesn't need a girlfriend for his defense. So honey CJ, I am more pro than what your GF thinks. It's because I am pro that I don't want to lose time with you or your stupid friends on our forum.

Because of you or your stupid friends:

- We had files leaked.
- We had websites hacked.
- We had personal works exposed on the web without any permission from us.
- We get and still have bashing with stupid arguments all the time. Read yourself and you will maybe understand.

Now about you CJ, only you:

- Your arguments are bullshit most of the time.
- You never answer my questions or the questions of Darkside when you know you are not right. You change the main subject of the conversation and bring another silly argument.
- You insult the work of Reborn. (see reborn forums, your own posts) I don't know a single mod team in the world that would allow such arrogance on their forum. We were too kind with you, now this time is over. You won't come back.
- "Remove" le balai que t'as dans le cul et relativise mec!
- Your stupid ideas (yeah most of those are stupid considering the Renegade engine) had no other purpose than delay our mod.
- Ack is your friend. It tells us a lot.
- You aren't welcome anymore on Reborn's place.
- You aren't welcome anymore on Reborn's place.
- You aren't welcome anymore on Reborn's place.
- You aren't welcome anymore on Reborn's place.

I don't hate you (I don't like you, hate is something different). I put you away because I don't want to read anymore crap. It's easier and I don't have to delete the posts like you and your friends do at renalert.

KTHX

(PS: Venompawz: I understand you defend your sweetheart and it's normal. But he has to learn to defend himself on another way than changing subject or hiding behind you.)

Without me this mod would be death, it's a fact. I did and do a lot for Reborn. And the team understand my position on this. Yeah I am just a texturer BUT with power. I use this power to defend the team, the mod, the work we all do from bastards like you that just edited his post and called me a retard...

This isn't the first time bannings were set by him for personal reasons. Renardin once banned me because I said "Renardin is being an asshole to my Chrono" or something very similar to that in #renalert. I then followed it with "You're all pricks", directed at nobody specifically. (I enjoy being random) Now Renardin, I'm not gonna hold a grudge or anything, I just am trying to help you be more professional so Reborn's staff looks better to the public. I know you're a good guy but there's been a lot of complaints from people about how you tend to use personal attacks. It makes them think you're not professional, which makes the mod lose some of it's appeal. =/ I also personally feel that I have to walk on eggshells when talking in a public place where you can see. You're not an emotional little kid, you're an adult, and I don't see why you would act like this, honestly. You're serious enough to take things personally, but laid-back enough to use insults. It confuses me.

- You never answer my questions or the questions of Darkside when you know you are not right. You change the main subject of the conversation and bring another silly argument. I didn't know what the fuck your friend was saying, he has the English skills of a first grader. I explained how he could improve this (write in French then translate) , but like you he ignored this helpful advice. I asked him to state his questions over, and answered those that he stated over more clearly.

- You insult the work of Reborn. (see reborn forums, your own posts) I don't know a single mod team in the world that would allow such arrogance on their forum. You don't get it otherwise and just dismiss things, unless somehow the thread draws massive attention so you can't just deny the changes need to be made.

- "Remove" le balai que t'as dans le cul et relativise mec! Chingate?

- Your stupid ideas (yeah most of those are stupid considering the Renegade engine) had no other purpose than delay our mod. You blamed me for leaks I wasn't around for.

You blamed me for team members leaving.

You claimed I brainwashed people.

You now claim that I am the cause of your mod being 2 years late? Fuck you. I won't let this one get blamed on me.

And everything I've suggested is possible. Renegade Alert had many of the things I discussed working a year or more ago, and you'd be amazed at the unreleased stuff you never knew about. Look at the work of Silent Kane, Neosaber, KGBSpy, and Jonwil. How much of their work this year would you have described as impossible last year?

- Ack is your friend. It tells us a lot. Yes. That I'm not a judgemental asshole, and get along with those on my mod team. I don't just blow them off and act out of line whenever I get emotionally upset.

- You aren't welcome anymore on Reborn's place. I am, just not by you.

Renardin, you need to not defend your cheating boyfriend by warning me not to post 19 hours after I posted and then using it as grounds to ban me with (in your own words) no discussion with your team.

It makes sense that Venompawz is mad that you're such a cockbite to me and always talk shit about me behind my back (I have more logs than you'd imagine from your team).

What do you think of that?

Venom and Chrono are quite lucky that they have the same interests. Anyway. Ren, I really dont want to seem like a two-faced fucker, But I have to agree with Chronojam. People post suggestions at the Reborn forums, and they just seem ignored by the team's apathy. I can understand that they want to release the mod sometime before Renegade is dead forever, But, Christ. It'd be nice if SOMEBODY acknowledged suggestions. ie:Remove the extras, Remove the laser from the Nod pistol. And I hope the Cyborg is going to be redone. A LOT of people at PPM were disgusted by it. You guys got skills. use them.

[Dead-6DarKsidE... wrote on Mon, 29 August 2005 21:21]jim not talking about love/friendship with oposite sex im talking about friendship with another person of the same sex. whatever

It's not a "romantic" friendship, it's the kind of friendship best friends have. The second you have "romantic" friendship with a girl, you know your relationship isn't going to last long. Like I said in #renalert: "(15:05:56) (@Venompawz) The second you think a relationship is all about the romance, your relationship will start to fail from that point" You need a strong solid friendship in order to stick together. I sure hope you don't think me playing Tiberian Sun with Chronojam is less valid than you playing with Renardin, or even dismiss me killing Chronojam using a Volkov in RenAlert just because I am gonna marry him. I'd rather you dismiss it purely for the fact that I have a lot more armor than him and can get my life back slowly over time. =P Please don't think less of me because I have ovaries. I like being one of the boys when it comes to friendship.

u give such argument but u'r boyfriend say the contrary wtf is that? who's the silly one?

Chronojam hasn't said anything opposing my posts, all of them have been in regards to Renardin acting oddly hostile. Silly isn't a bad thing to be called, either, silly. =P It's more like a friendly thing.

"You'd be surprised. =P Chronojam, if anyone, knows a LOT about friendship" then why he says things like that

What does him talking about Renardin have to do with friendship when obviously Renardin doesn't want a friendship of any kind with Chronojam? I know you don't speak English well, so I will explain what Chronojam meant: He basically was mocking Renardin for defending you, his best friend, about cheating and telling me not to defend Chronojam, my best friend.

I wasn't even defending him, I was questioning the hostility towards anyone who questions Renardin. Please don't assume I was defending him; he's a bold guy and if he chooses to get into situations, I trust him to get out of them on his own.

??? u should talk together... i think about how lame the situation is getting right here...

I constantly talk to him, and you sir really need to stop belittling me and my close friendship with Chronojam just because I'm female. The situation is indeed lame, why would you be so bothered by people accusing you of cheating? Why would you make a movie to give away your playing style? If you really are that good, would you want people to start playing like you?

what's wrong with trying to speak english... at least i try to answer u'r question (unlike u) and make my self understandable even if it's hard sometime... i see u'r talking about sarcasm... just read my previous post if u'r not blind u'll might see some...

i don't despise girl or anything don't use that as an argument, it was just an example... trying to make me say i think girls and boy are not equal? (remember when i said girl are more mature than boy???) i don't think there's something wrong in defending u'r boyfriend... (by the way u'r doing great, maybe better than him)

each time i justify my self... ok ok if u want it i hate girls especially when they are like u. just following "boys" and "being a tool" like u said previously...

ho yeah i said that cause he used the word "boyfirend" i don't know much about english but i surely know what a boyfriend is...

chrono that's the 3rd time u use "my english" that as an argument... who the fuck care... u'r the only one complaining about that again...is my english really the problem? lol... don't think so...

i'll end by saying this :Renardin and the team listen to the people comments. It's not because someone comes with an idea that they have to follow it. They make their mod and they decide the stuff. They do it for nothing and use a lot of their time...

by the way renardin is banned from red alert forum for more than 1 year...and he really... really don't care... tried something to get him back on the renalert forum?? mmm... i guess no...

what ever u'll say have a nice night (i hope u'll still have some power left to be horny after saying all those craps...)

He didnt ask me, but you need to learn this language. I know you French fuckers arent intelligent enough to do anything except cower in fear when someone invades your country, but this language aint that fucking hard, so get off your ass and learn it. Dont try to turn this language into a bitch language like most people and those white mean mean black persons do, either learn it, or take Chrono's advice and translate from a site. I cant understand most of what comes from fuckin posts. French bastard.

Now that ive gotten that out of my system for this post...

Oh, we will. We will indeed. For years to come, were gonna make fun of you for basically giving up the argument, and admitting your wrong. See, by removing all the bans from the Reborn forums, and posting that your gonna just care about your Modding, youve just basically told us that you care what we think, and want us to think your a good person. Guess what? Your not. Your an idiot. Your Modding skills are a hell of alot better than mine, but then again, i dont have enough money to learn any coding, or anything. You think that your Mod is the shit, and that all should bow before your godlike skills because you created it, and blah blah blah, yap yap yap, nobody cares.

If you think your so high and mighty, why dont you fucking prove it? I can tell by the way you carry yourself that you think that, so dont deny it. Once you back down from an argument or a fight, you show weakness. If you really had any point to argue, you wouldnt have. If you were smart, you wouldnt admitted that Chrono was correct, and that you werent. Instead you argued like four year old would, showing how mature you really are. Congradu-freakin-lations. You officially have been placed upon my list of idiots.

One helpful tip you can try when writing out something everyone can understand is using proper spelling in your posts; it's really hard understanding someone who doesn't use the actual words let alone someone who already is having trouble translating into English on top of it. ^_^

I'm not defending him, I'm wondering what the hell is going on with Renardin, but he seemed to clear that up. Thanks Renardin. ^_^

Just remember that people are people; gender has nothing to do with how foolish someone is. It does, however, have a "cultural" impact of sorts, depending if those around you feel strongly enough to really make you play the role your culture has for that gender. I was raised around all males so that is the "culture" I picked up. I learned how to play my female role from my friends at school when I was little and also from the teachers and parents of my friends. But!... you can be raised around morons and pick that up, too, regardless of gender. ^_- each time i justify my self... ok ok if u want it i hate girls especialy when they are like u. just folowing "boys" and "being a tool" like u said previously...

You think I am being a tool and following males...? That's not what I do at all. I like videogames and if the majority of people who play them are guys, eh, oh well. You do what you've gotta do. =P When I said I like "being one of the boys", that means I enjoy feeling like I'm not being treated differently because I have ovaries. That also means I'm not being flirted with constantly or being treated in a gentle way that implies I am a weakling. I am less of a pussy than most people I know, and I want to be treated as such. =P hehe Just ask anyone in #renalert or #n00bstories, even.

He was kidding, geez =P

It is a bit frustrating to read honestly... it's not really your English but rather how you manage to spell it.

i'll end by saying this :Renardin and the team listen to the people comments. It's not because someone comes with an idea that they have to follow it. They make their mod and they decide the stuff. They do it for nothing and use a lot of their time...

That is true, but where would they be without a community?

by the way renardin is banned from red alert forum for more than 1 year...and he really... really don't care... tried something to get him back on the renalert forum?? mmm... i guess no...

Eh, that's entirely up to Aircraftkiller.

what ever u'll say have a nice night (i hope u'll stil have some power left to be horny after saying all those craps...)

What the HELL?! O_o

I might as well post this link while I'm here: <http://www.ocremix.org/remix/OCR00404/>

Everyone should download that, it's a song that's put together very well.

PS: You're not the only Frenchie here =P There are tons of people with French mixed in. Kinda like mixing vanilla icecream with chocolate chips... damn, now I want icecream.

On-Topic:

This topic has become nothing more than a ridiculous(and seemingly personal?) volley of flames on random other topics. That's simply unacceptable. Of course, I'm sure a lot of you know this and/or don't care, but eh.

Aww. . .! That's sweet! I'm almost jealous. Everyone needs a sweetie like you for a significant other. . .or. . .dear friend. . or whatever you two are. Not my place to ask. XD Edit: Duh. If I'd read back a little, I would've known he was your fiancé and you're his fiancée. And now I know, and knowing if half the battle!

Also, excuse my weirdness. Sleep deprivation followed by a game of Renegade does that to me. Inhibitions go bye bye and I dork-out.

This isn't really the topic for it, but here. . .

<http://www.mapleglobal.com>

In short, Maple Story is pretty much an online version of Wonderboy in Monster World; it's a 2D action-platformer with the elements and stat-adjusting of an RPG.

Although you can keep the rest of the argument. I have a problem with Chronojam, thinking a translator could make it easier for us. We try our best. I'm lucky I live in a country where it's normal that people learn a second language.

A nice example of automatic translation errors.

Dutch:

Chronojam, welke talen spreek je naast Engels? Ik kan je aanraden zelf eerst er 1 te test, voordat je andere mensen adviseert er 1 te gebruiken. Geloof me zo goed werken ze niet.

Automatic Altavista babelfisch Englisch translation:

Chronojam, which languages speak you beside English? I can advise you yourself firstly there 1 test, before you recommend other using people there 1. Belief me this way well does not work them.

Weirdo's manual translation:

Chronojam, which languages do you speak besides English? I should advise you fist to try 1 out yourself, before you recommend the usage of them to other people. Believe me they don't work that well.

I still think people should adjust there language to that of other people. This is just to proove it isn't as easy as you might think it is.

Look. Just because he's French doesn't give him an excuse to use u'r to mean "your," as in "something that belongs to you."

English people likewise get bitched at. Luckily, the English language is very forgiving and people easily tolerate horrible misuse of words. And I know Spanish.

C, is k relidad no? Lol pork u no cpomren mi palbros? Posible q no use bein? Yo uso compdora bueno! Crayo k 2 r'es n00blar. n00bism a otro lengwa no xcusa retardismo. C no prendo Inglis bein, sa-k traduceer =B

Wow, that felt really retarded to write. It was my attempt to write Spanish the way you write English. Anybody out there know Spanish or natively speak it? Try reading that. It's how I feel when I read this DarKSidE guy's posts, except he is a lot more atrocious with how he phrases stuff and makes up new contractions. If you don't know a language well, you have absolutely no place making up your own freeform abbreviations and contractions. Especially when you don't need a contraction in the first place.

Actually. . .no. . . I like where this topic went. As far as I can tell, Chronojam is speaking up about languages and horrible typographical skills that tie in with such things. And he's right. No matter what country you're from. . .no matter what language you speak. . .using your nationality as an excuse to use "Net Abbreviations," as I call them, is just idiocy. If you're going to give a poor excuse, at least give an honest one. I'm more than willing to accept "im 2 lazy 2 type right" as an excuse. Much as I didn't want to, I got used to the fact that not everyone feels that typing by-the-book is a mandatory skill when dealing with their online peers. I just pray these same people don't think that this "Internet clause" of the written English language(so to speak) applies to everyday life. It's bad enough we have people typing out these things, but then there's the people who actually have the gall to bark out "Arr-oh-eff-ell, gee gee everyone. Gee gee." and things like that over voice chat. What. . .in the Hell? Ya know?

Anyway, before this turns into any more of a wandering rant, I'll shut up.

'morning evry1 (oups sorry i'll make it possible to understand for chronojam) Good morning evryone!! lol... my my... im really gonna use a translator now..

ho viper... thx for the song but... i already played xenogears for hours... (one of the best rpg) my languange...

u always... always... using that as an excuse... whatever. i know that even if it was hard for u, u can understand me. and that's u'r problem.

chronojam... i just think u forget the main reason that bring us on this forum... u always... always... change subject.. or talk about my language...

saying that it's not because im a french that i can use something like "u" instead of "you". But i can also see that u were fuckin smart enough to understand that... so what's the problem with the rest...(maybe cause im frenchy=)... whatever i won't be so low to talk about u'r original country...

one thing is sure... i won't take time to use a translator to ask u question in proper english, that u'r not even answering

viper i think u ridicule u'r self more than me and my english, by taking back my post and say things that evryone would agree on...(like girls and boy equals.. blablaba) if evryone can't understand me... WHY is this topic so long lol...and why u using my own words to try making u'r post... chronojam skeep my questions over and over...

"you have absolutely no place making up your own freeform abbreviations and contractions. Especially when you don't need a contraction in the first place"

..... How about... fuck u? u always say tha same thing m8.("M8")isn't too hard for u to understand?

"This topic has become nothing more than a ridiculous(and seemingly personal?) volley of flames on random other topics. That's simply unacceptable. Of course, I'm sure a lot of you know this and/or don't care, but eh" someone said that...

the main answer is: who's fault? who started it? see the first post that chronojam did on me...on reborn forum....

my english suck so what.. i'll have to wait next year i know a better english? u'r problem is that even with my pitifull english, u fuckin shut u'r mouth before me(except when u talking about my language), and got nothing to do but to ask u'r girl and u'r friends for help on the forum. (and that's soooooo true)

if my english is so bad well... maybe that's cause i'm learning japanese since 2 years right now and that i don't have time to study english anymore(i know english is an important language by the way)...(being french wasn't an excuse so...)

well c ya. (Well, see you)

PS:Chronojam, i just hope i'm not the only one that see how much u ridiculize u'r self.

PPS:i really think that the only thing that is gonna(going to) settle this problem is : "the hard way"

"you'r" to mean "your" ... "wan't" to mean "want" .. these are common examples of what I was trying to refer to. You're making something LOOK like a contraction when it's not.

Look at his second to last line in his last post. "u'r self." I could understand "yourself" instead of "your self," that's common, accepted, and is a compound pronoun of word. But "u'r self" is one bastard of a phrase!

I've mad'e it clea'r that I can't unde'restand wut u'r even asking some'times. Your grand statement that I "always... always... change subject.. or talk about my language..." is bullshit. First, you've only ever talked to me in this one topic. Second, you weren't even here the entire time. I've responded to every question that you've thoughtfully typed out in a concise manner, that's a fact.

All you do is make excuses and pretend the whole world is fooled. So I'll ask you again: What question do you want me to answer? I won't skeep [sic] your question if I understand it.

And why the hell aren't you using a translator yet? Do you type like shit so bad in French it can't tell what you mean? Your comment about learning English doesn't matter, I keep asking you to use a translator to make things easier on everybody. Instead u jst rant on like dis m8. Stop making language a problem.

"Stop making language a problem"

OMG!!! no comment. but who's making it a problem...

(questions like the fact that i use hammer head sakura and all)

JUST READ MY PREVIOUS POSTS

"There is nothing proving his weapon does not have a large beam to it, a shotgun-style blast to it, or splash damage, either. If he was clever I bet he'd put ricochets to his shots so he can bounce them around". as u said in reborn forum

(LOLOLOL i forgot about the super beam splash ramjet rifle i have but it's normal im Darkside the super hacker) (by the way now the problem has become my language) nah really look at what u said there... it makes u look like such a noob...

"All you do is make excuses and pretend the whole world is fooled" lmao , u'r the only one fooled right here...looooooooooooool actually u were fooling evryone by saying i cheat. (do you even remember????)

u lie over and over again, ignore my questions, and ask me to use proper english,and ask them again.. just fuckin read the post where i ask u some questions (ho yeah by the way u always change subject and ignoring all the truth i say about. but well it seem that i'm not the only one to think that.

we'r getting nowhere man...nowhere...

let's find a way to settle this.

all i want is to play my game without having to face people like u.

You know, Darkside, you're really starting to come off as an arrogant and hostile guy who can't take a joke at all. Stop taking things so personally and maybe people wouldn't accuse you of cheating. (I've seen many people accuse others of cheating simply because it pisses them off) If you're gonna bitch about my format of replying to you, then you should let us bitch about your spelling.

By the way, you ultimately "started it" because you took "gom u hax lawl" to heart and make a movie because of it. Geez, chill out a bit. Nobody HONESTLY gives a damn about how good you are, which is why they say you cheat. That, if anything, should be a hint that people really don't care about your status in a videogame. They dismiss it to really make this point stand out.

Also, you honestly have no damn clue about me; all you know is based on posts that attempt to be nice to you but are only replied with by flames on your part. CAN YOU NOT RECOGNIZE ME BEING POLITE? I hope you can.

"viper i think u ridiculize u'r self more than me and my english," What the fuck, dude?

Here's a prediction I'll make for your reply: "ya im readin ur post but chronojam is ignoring my qestions n he ridiculize hmslf"

Try posting the question without a bunch of insults and distractions laced around it if you expect people to answer you. You're probably gonna take that as an insult, but it's a suggestion that's there to make you easier to understand. Alright?

nah to say the truth i like u. (this is the truth)

i really would like my girl to protect me like u do.(lol)

it's joke ok. but really i see and respect u'r devotion to u'r boyfriend.

(and by the way i really thought one day, that someone who like xenogears can't be a bad person but well...)

i nerver said u were not polite... and again.. u'r not the problem here.

nah really i would have like to know u better and all but i can't start from this...

u always say :

(when u see, u said something wrong) "hey it was a joke or sarcasm!! u can't take a joke man!!!"

lol... u won't be able to hide YOURSELF behind that for eternity just like u'r boy...

by the way i was curious about you and chronojam... i saw some picture of u 2... u look great. too bad u never admit when u say something wrong, and u know it.

and by the way... u start acting kind, only when u'r boy is in a bad stance (look the previous posts where u'r nice with me) (i was nice with u at that time) remember? or can't u take some joke just like me? (remember my first and 2nd post for u) u'r a good person. but u'r damn wrong sometime about what u think. folowing another one ideas without thinking, even if it's the one u love is a bad thing... but well u'll see by YOURSELF...

waiting for u'r kind answer.

David.

i'll let u meditate on this for tonight.

may i do a last JOKE? yeah???? thx!

chronojam, have a nice prank tonight in front of u'r webcam, while thinking about my sniping skill (lol) and how nooby u acted the whole time u were on this topic.

ok ok it was an easy JOKE, and i look bad by saying that while i know that long distance love is hard to live with.

but well... i'm a bad guy it seem...

if i were u: (really)

-i would appologize about what i said (you know... the fact that im cheating and all...)

-i would forget the guy i was talking too.

-and i would pay more attention to my girl.

that's it... i won't say that i know what u'r girl is gonna say (yeahhhh he's kind with meee, he love meeeeeeee)

well i think that's the question i'm gonna meditate for... hmmm... 5 min?

O_o ...eh? He spends plenty of time with me; we both type very fast so posting here really doesn't take much of our time. Plus we're both good at multitasking. =P Doesn't this count as spending time together though? It's a common interest, ya know. Both posting at the same forums and all that... ^_^

For the record, long distance is a bitch but you have to work hard for everything in life, don't you? We've been doing this for four years so don't worry about us having a hard time with it or anything, we're fine. ^_^ If it doesn't kill you, it makes you stronger. =P

Also, another "for the record" comment: James doesn't really care about your sniping skill or cheating or whatever, he just thought it was retarded that both you and Renardin would care so much, that's all. How do I know this? I read minds! Bwahahaha!

I know I said to contact me in some other way so I wouldn't whore up my post count with one-liners, but this is a bit different since it's a longer response. Sorry if it seems like I was lying or anything similar. ^^

PS: I get the feeling you think Chronojam and I are n00bs at relationships... we're not at all. ^_^ Infact, many people come to me for relationship help. I am pretty much the #renalert relationship doctor. You can come to me for help, as well, if you need some.

well... when someone is kind i can't be bad... let's call it a truce... ^^ until the next head shots video i'll make ^^

i can do the trailer right here right now:
(voice of a Arnold Schwarzenegger)

MORE head shots...

MORE good musics (i may put japanese music sorry)

MORE good people shoted (i'll try to have chronojam on it) (u'r warned^^)

MORE mm.... ACTION

MORE fun (well i'll try)

MORE successive kills (i'll try to do 3 hs in 3 shots ^^)

all the big miss and good shot i took in my head...

people would say... "yeahhhh no one care about it" but since this topic is here... is it the truth?

well until the return of darkside the great (heroic voice) (lol) u'll have to bare with this video:

http://media.putfile.com/SansTitre_000573

c ya.

(for those who don't understand, this is a joke. i know my skill, i'm not a great sniper, but i can do some head shots...)

LOL! You are a silly one. ^_^ I can't help but imagine Chronojam headshotting you or something in the middle of your video, it's just too funny to me =X Not saying you suck or anything, but I just instantly imagine that for some reason.

PS: Skill movies are lame =P It is the legend typed by countless others that truly says you're good. Like when you enter a server and "vets" greet you simply because you're a fun person to play against and you play in a professional, unique way that really makes the game more interesting.

And I am getting too deep with this, I'd better just end it now. XD

lol chrono the courageous guy that comme after the storm im sure u'r the kind of sniper who stay behind the other and snipe with ramjet only people who have half of their H.P..(it's really a j/k)

" You know, Darkside, you're really starting to come off as an arrogant and hostile guy who can't take a joke at all."

shouldn't u return this to someone else? ^^

c ya^^

think i'm gonna play my game now...

(i like the blue color... actually it's cool to read.) think im gonna change my color too...

It's ridiculous for anyone to "talk shit", especially on the internet and especially if it's about videogame skills. It's just plain retarded to do so. =P If you're really gonna do so, make the topic be worthy of the argument at least. And for fuck's sake, start PMing us or come on irc or SOMETHING. I'm tired of walking on eggshells here and want to talk to you personally so you don't feel the need to defend your pride in front of everyone, you'll only have to do it in front of me.

It feels like I'm in politics when I reply to your posts here, or at the very least it feels like I am in the spotlight. I HATE being in the spotlight.

i'm new with the "forum world" and i don't know what is IRC...

u look great under spotlight (lol)

i think ive got chronojam icq... i'll try it later.

well, it seem it's my last post for today... c ya.

u want my msn?

Yes, but it may still leave you paralyzed, deformed, or without certain body parts.

Weirdo wrote on Tue, 30 August 2005 09:16Although you can keep the rest of the argument. I have a problem with Chronojam, thinking a translator could make it easier for us. We try our best. I'm lucky I live in a country where it's normal that people learn a second language.

A nice example of automatic translation errors.

Dutch:

Chronojam, welke talen spreek je naast Engels? Ik kan je aanraden zelf eerst er 1 te test, voordat je andere mensen adviseert er 1 te gebruiken. Geloof me zo goed werken ze niet.

Automatic Altavista babelfisch Englisch translation:

Chronojam, which languages speak you beside English? I can advise you yourself firstly there 1 test, before you recommend other using people there 1. Belief me this way well does not work them.

Weirdo's manual translation:

Chronojam, which languages do you speak besides English? I should advise you first to try 1 out yourself, before you recommend the usage of them to other people. Believe me they don't work that well.

I still think people should adjust their language to that of other people. This is just to prove it isn't as easy as you might think it is.

(Everyone please ignore this post except for Weirdo so I don't kill the topic).

You shouldn't really say "people", because there are a lot of people who are at least learning a second language. It IS in fact required in high school to have two years of a second language.

I wanted to learn a second language, so I've been learning German. I took the advantage of taking it at school, but I also teach myself at home sometimes.

Ich spreche Deutsch... ist es einfach? Na, ich weiß nicht.
