Two things,

One, I have been playing Ren for a while now but I still don't know how to use certain commands like !donate and things of this nature. Is there a list of these commands that I can read somewhere?

Two, some jerk defamed me last night for something that I didn't do. Is there any way to fix this?

Thanks,

It depends on the server you are playing. On which server do you tend to play? By the way, it's !donate [playername] [amount] in F3(teamchat) to donate to another player.

Question One: In the game, as long as you have Renguard, type in: "!help" and the commands will pop up. Its alittle hard to get them all first time, but you can get them all, if you try hard enough. Also, you can just pay attention to the other players, sometimes they pop up with commands that you can/want to use.

Question Two: No. And dont worry about it. People in those servers are jackasses sometimes, so just ignore them. If i may ask, what was it that the person defamed you for?

Thanks for the info.

The guy claimed that I was dropping mammys on the field when we were trying a med tank rush. Well, to make a long story short, at that point in the game, I hadn't bought anything for about twenty minutes, and before that I had bought about twenty meds to help stock up for the med rush. When that failed, I just resigned myself to guard the back door. The team sucked anyway, everyone was their own hero. But I definitely wasn't buying mammys. Sounds childish to post like this, but I feel better anyways.

Thanks,

Yeah, dont worry about them. The recommendations and fames you get dont mean anything, just that you were better in one way or the other than everyone else in the server at the time, or that someone thinks you did something extreamly well, or think you screwed up or are acting like an idiot. Its really just their opinion, and something to either make you look bad, or sometimes good. Never care too much about those idiots, because one way or the other, your going to get them back. You wouldnt believe how many times ive been defamed, or "noobed"(Unrules Servers) and then shown up the person did that to me.

This is probably one of the most intelligent set of posts I've seen from a newcomer to the forums in the past two months. In addition, you didn't make a typical "omg wtf i got baned 4 xploting rg hap me i didn do et it wuz mah bruddur" bull-jazz. You asked a simply question regarding typical RenGuard(and sometimes CloudyServ) commands and explaining something that someone had accused you of doing. It's this kind of post from a newcomer that should be framed and hung for all to view.(No, that wasn't sarcasm. It's rare around these parts to see an intelligent newcomer.)
