Nopic, that's fucked up as Hell. Don't make fun of people because they lived in New Orleans/Buloxi/Mobile. They get hit by a Category 5 Hurricane. 80% of New Orleans is underwater! Plus, diseases are all through that water. If you drink the water, it would be like eating a raw piece of steak.

Hey, anybody seen March of the Penguins?

j_ball, I love it

Here is what March of the Penguins is about:

A journey that will take the penguins hundreds of miles across the continent by foot, in freezing cold temperatures, in brittle, icy winds and through deep, treacherous waters. They will risk starvation and attack by dangerous predators.

That's all I've got right now lol. Got it from Google.

Or he'll just cause Armaggedon and he'll be dictator for about 7 years, after which the world as we know it will cease to exist.
