today ive installed the CP1, played normally on Non00bs.net server.
now when i try to connect to this serv i receive an error "Version mismatch".and every server gives me this damned error. but several hours ago everything was OK. what the hell is going on?
what can i do to fix it?

delete topic. this thing is fixed, everything that was necessary was only downloading two txt files via RenGuard(this usually crashed but now worked properly (???)
