i was last night banned from RG, with the message u have been disconnect/banned from the rg network, unknown cheats found in ur data, but after 5 mins it was back ok, i was suprised when i saw that, because i was playing on Jelly (always). I forgot to take a ss of it, so that u guys could see what that message was, maybe there was a little mistake with the server or something or maybe by accident clicked a wrong name...

Thx Robby

More likely than not, it's a system glitch. Nothing to worry about. . .

It doesn't ban you from the network for using cheats, you were probably just disconnected.
