Yeah, my hamster also offered me a blacklisted exe, that little fuck! But I already thought he was up to something, so I didn't accept it. lucky me, heh...

Stop saying it was someone else!!! This must be one of the most pityful excuses yet, though...

Wow.. he trusted somebody who knew and it turned out it got him banned, what do you want him to do?

If Crimson or Mac or whoever doesnt reply, just PM them and explain mate, they might look into what happened, might not.
