Just stopped by this forum and checked the outdated(?) sticky about Core Patch 2. No release date as of yet still?

I think they're busy with taking over the WORLD...no wait...it was...WOL...yeah

Though I'd also like to know if there's been any progress

I'm pretty sure RenGuard will be coming out before the second Core Patch, as I recall it had a "higher priority" over it. Apparently they've hit a snag with RenGuard, so I wouldn't expect it to be released as soon as we would all hope.

We're looking for a good modder who can do the map fixes.. stuck there, because Laeubi is too lazy to do it.

Have you asked zunnie and/or Reborn? They would be more than able to do it.

zunnie didn't help at all, even when he is/was in BHS

Titan is already doing something for CP2

I haven't talked to reborn or even know him

... I have seen people with CP2 already(most likely an alpha version). Are some features of it already being tested?

Whats the difference between an alpha version and a beta version?

There is no alpha/beta version because have not assembled a cp1 client alpha/beta.

Alpha means in development, beta means that it is actually done and is being tested now
