pitiful, using cheats on cheaters does not make it justified.

i found this on a certain popular CHEATERS website

so its not using cheats on cheaters, since hes made it available for all the cheaters to download!

It isn't necessarily him, it might just be some douchebag registering on a cheat forum with his name to make him look bad.

Not saying that's what's happening, just pointing out the possibility.

RenGuard stops those cheats he "made". He is free to use them all he wants in non-RG servers, but hopefully server owners will see this post and pre-ban him

Well, it's not because RG stops it that he's free to use it.

That is an arguement cheat makers use: "RG can stop it, so I can make this cheat". NO! RG is there to stop those cheats indd but they should never be made in the first place. Also considering there are lots of half-renguard servers, a game can be ruined in 3 seconds with this kind of cheat. Or if no moderator is online, you can forcerg (by the time u do it, the game is ruined) and the guy can rejoin under another name.

Are you certain it was this cheat. This cheat is basicly the same as millions out there. It's not easy to make one just like this.

It actually surprises me, that there isn't just some simple tool made by these guys to choose wich cheats should be active while playing.

It was a cheat either very close to or similar, I am not sure though. Could have been a different cheat.

Not that I'm derailing the topic... but...

Weren't you supposed to be gone for nine glorious weeks of no you?
Since your computer kinda got taken by your parents... but now you've got a laptop?

Or is it possible you just wanted public sympathy.

*Shrug*

Either way, back on topic.

He can cheat all he likes, just not on any servers that are smart enough to ban him or use Renguard. Sheesh.

Well, I think it's important to research into why Nightma was on a cheat forum in the first place.

And I'd like those who jumped on the "1NCE A CHEETER ALWYS A CHEETER" bandwagon to maybe think about this, what if Nightma has some grudge against AAdude? or perhaps there is something just as sinister there as well.

I dont use cheats on multiplayer and singleplayer. I'm just givin away something known as a "objects mod." Renegade is old, when I came back to Renegade I was suprised to see people playing. My friend (GenRecon3)hates cheats and wont let me use them (not that I would.)

Why did you create it in the first place? The cheat won't help the cheaters community, because it seems like just the same cheat like anyone else. The cheat won't help the non-cheaters.

So what's in it for you...? How long did you spend learning how to modify the objects settings?

I was supposed to be gone, and I seriously was gone. But just 2 days ago I bought me a laptop from my local computer store. I was planning on buying it anyways along time ago.

Next time you're bored, just work at the renegadewiki.

Making cheats just to givet hem to others is even worse than making one that you keep secret. Even though it's a very bad cheat...
