I remember way back when a people made a ton of starcraft models all sorts. Some of them were actually good too. However last I heard they got into a legal battle with blizzard and lost. Apparently blizzard doesn't like people making mods of starcraft especially since now they are coming out with their own fps. WHICH IS COMING OUT ON XBOX AHHHHHH!!!!!! ok I have to get a glass of water... walks away and comes back with a glass of water If I were you I would think of a new, original idea for a mod but you could go for it if you want. I would love to see a starcraft mod if it was well done. However if you're asking for models I am skeptical.
