I'll be getting the map gathered up and finished by tonight. I need at least ten people to e-mail me (aircraftkiller@cncrenegade.info) to get in on the test. All I ask is that you take the time to find any bugs you possibly can and submit them via e-mail so that I can fix them in a timely manner. Anyways, now that I think of it... I've decided to add Tiberium Silos into the map. They will give you one extra credit per second.
