These stupid childish Australians can't take a hint, they are wrong...all the time. The children on this forum have a little thing called the Rep System, well since they are all crazy liberal idiots they have put me into the negatives, mainly because I prove how wrong they are on a daily basis. I need some other people who share my views to get on this website to even out everything. Show these idiots they are wrong and put them in their place.

Having read only 2 and a half pages, I would contend that Nodbugger, once again, has no idea what it is he is talking about.

It's not a matter of political bias, it's a matter of Nodbugger raping the concept of logic. If he wants conservatives to support him, I suggest for him to look someplace where stupidity and hypocrisy take priority over reason, and believe it or not, even the conservatives here aren't stupid enough to actually back such a belligerent hypocrite and all 'round twit.

It is a matter of political bias though Carbon. Come on, you know I'm a trustable sort, and I read through that forum too. Realistically Nodbugger could post in a topic about The War with the comment "The W in his name stands for Walker" and would get flamed rediculously. "IT SATATANDS 4 WAR U DICKFLINCHROD!" Notice the strange insult as well. That is typical...

<http://www.zgeek.com>

Hello All. ZGeek Member, American and Sick Of Nodbugger's Bullshit here.

He failed to offer up the fact that the forum owner gave him a few hundred rep points so that he could continue posting.

He also failed to mention the fact that his "let's kill every arab" gun toting "I'm going to West Point 'cause I'm so fucking Cool" and his absolute inability to operate like a rational Human Being make him an embarrassment to the US.

You are correct in that after he makes a few stupid comments he is jumped all over and bashed. The overall tolerance for his crap is about as negative as his "rep".

If you go to the ZGeek site, and to Nodbuggers profile, and click on "read all posts" you will find that the little basement dwelling boy has made a mockery of about every American Ideal that there ever was by being the epitome of a Rambo wanna' be psychotic. The latest thread, where he determines that Hussein should be killed and not allowed a trial because he is guilty, based on some movie (WMDs) is even funnier.

Noddy, a really disturbed little boy and an embarrassment to Americans.

My only hope is that he give up on ZGeek and start spending all his energy posting here or somewhere else. Better yet, his Mommy and Daddy find out about his posts and take away his computer.

This is enough to embarass me to be on the same planet as Noddy:

Quote:You are still wrong. The facts the articles have prove his guilt, he admits it, Saddam is guilty no matter what your stupid fucking mind thinks.

You can't sit here and analyze how guilty he is. He should be shot and thrown off the Earth.

There is no question on how guilty he is. You liberals are just too fucking stupid. You support terrorists, rioters, Dictators, and mass murderers. But when someone goes to remove these evil people, the people doing GOOD things become evil.

Get a fucking life you loser.

First of all, I don't see how you can qualify a whole online community as "wrong" or "trouble". Seems to me that the trouble here is you.

From what I've read so far the political views here aren't so different from those on ZGeek. Moore's 9/11 is an example of that. You don't have to be American, Aussie or barely conscious to see that was shit. The other threads I have skimmed seem about the same; stupidity is stupidity in any hemisphere.

Nodbugger, people should not be banned for their beliefs. That includes their beliefs about others in the forum. I'm a conservative and you know that, but you need to think about what you say before you say it. Some of the things you say sound very radical. At the same time though, much of what they say on those message boards are over the top as well.

Noddy, please post an example of "how I have handled myself" on any board, within context, here. If you are going to say it, please be prepared to back it up with proof.

Anything else is slander.

I think that you should strongly consider the advice you were given, think before you type. Much like your having to whine to ZGeek's Admin to remove all of the posts where you posted personal information, etc.

Actually, I agree with this for the most part. Not necessarily to the same extent, but Saddam should be put to death without a trial. Everybody knows damn well that he'll be proven guilty for all of his horrible crimes he's committed against his own people. Regardless of the fact that the war in Iraq is not a "legal" one, Saddam is guilty of torturing his people and even attempting genocide on one particular ethnic group.

Other than that, I pretty much disagree with Nodbugger on his radical conservative opinions, though I am a conservative myself.

My personal views in regards to Nodbugger is that he petitioned for members of this board to come to ours and do likewise, it seems only fair that we can return the favour.

In regards to Saddam, as I pointed out over at zgeek, if you kill Saddam he will become a martyr to the cause.

The hardcore fundamentalists will forever use him as a shining example of western abuse to the muslim world as they continue to recruit young foolish men and women to do Allahs bidding.

Stand him up to the world and prove he is guilty of murdering not only his own people but many other muslims from the region then you no longer have a powerful weapon against the west, you have a scum bag that even Muslims would despise.

I submit for your entertainment a continuation of yet another of Noddy's delusional threads. Seeing how the other thread has taken such an intelligent and serious tone, I thought this could be some comic relief:

Quote: Nodbugger on ZGeek: You do realize dodging bullets doesn't take an insane amount of speed or move style jumps to do. If you see someone pointing a gun at you and you run , they shoot and miss, you just dodged bullets, if you had an extra 50 lbs of gear on you, you may not have been so lucky.

You guys are really just grasping at straws now. He's right in that quote. He didn't say that the method is efficient, but it doesn't have to take insane amounts of speed or agility to "dodge" a bullet. Regardless if that only works 1/1000th of the time, it still happens that one time, and it just happening that one time makes it possible. He never said it was probable that you would dodge a bullet.

Posting it out of context didn't give the full effect. That was one of the many reiterations of the "I can dodge a bullet" comment that he'd made. it got to be rather comical in all.

Personally, if it only works 1 out of 1000 times, I dont consider that to be a viable strategy to rely on. In my experience the best way to dodge a bullet is not be in it's path in the first place. The only two times that I've ever been shot at the person doing the shooting was so drunk that my not moving probably saved my ass. (amongst other parts)
