Ok we really need help with our Renegade : Battle For Dune Mod for Renegade. We need a team that is dedicated to Renegade. What I mean by that is that they still play Renegade. The Leader of this mod Killakanz has given me a detailed list of the team members he needs and here it is:

Quote:

Skinner:

Skinner will be asked to Prove that they can make a good 1 image skin for a new model from scratch.

Talented modellers:

Ideally, someone who knows exactly how building aggregates work, and other things like bones and emitters/dazzles.

Talented Mappers:

Someone who can make good maps.

Commando Editors:

Advanced knowledge in Commando LevelEdit is a must for this position, as we will be making either all new presets of changing settings on everything.

Scripters:

Someone who knows how to script and is good at coming up with ideas. Scripters are basically required to be the bright sparks of the team.

Please help keep this mod alive!

If can can do any of the above and want to help out please e-mail the mod leader Killakanz at killakanz@imneverwrong.com .

Thank You,
Aaron

please don't let Renegade or this mod die out.

I am a beta tester already...

I don't have any skills that could help you to much unless you have somebody who is good with images and I could design a website for you (no php and stuff though)...

I would love to help though.

-Sk8rRIMuk I am an experienced modeler, but can only make models, and not bone them and make them work on renegade, i can just make really good models of guns and crap like that, also i can animate my models. if u r intersted in hireing me as modeler on the team i would be glad to help, u can email me @ conman231@hotmail.com or chat on msn.
