Just have a script zone activate a custom .txt cinematic script that has a Chinook drop a specific vehicle, or if you want, have it drop off soldiers. It is actually pretty cool to watch...

I think he means that you are piloting and drop off stuff, and you are dropping off troops.

Instead of just transporting infantry around, you could transport tanks around! Imagine a couple of those dropping of a couple of Mammys in the Nod base. Ha! A mammy sitting on top of the Hand of Nod in City Flying!
