Well, they are going for $4k + on eBay... Hmm... 2 free 360s x $4k = $8000

Although the 360 is basically a computer... 3 processors at 3.2 GHz, 512 MB RAM, 20 GB HD...

My plan: get an Xbox hard drive, transfer files to a different hard drive, put hard drive in PC.

It doesn't have three processors. It has one processor with three cores.

It doesn't really matter what's inside of it. It's fucking retarded that people are willing to shoot and kill other people over something so shitty and unimportant such as an Xbox. I was considering buying one, but no point in it now since I'll be in fear of someone shooting me over it.

Yay for Microsoft trying to do a near-simultaneous global launch and creating shortages all over.
