hey guys here is my strategy on walls flying ok so ya buy a sbh and a chinook ya know wat i mean and first sneak into the ref and plant the c4 on the mct then gdi always investigate so ya gotta be out before you are caught hide in the usual ref nuking place until they leave then get back in the heli back to base then once you have refilled head over to the pp {the reason i do this is because bombing the ref stops funding bombing pp increases costs so bomb that then go back to base again this time buy a nuke and plant it on the wf roof and instead of guarding it use it as a red herring and bomb the barr

I know I have bad grammer but I use .s and ,s. Look, here is what happens.

You buy Chin

Me: WTF ARE YOU DOING NOOB!!!

You: Im gunna own gdi me: When you die come and help D the base from the mammys shooting hand...

You: fly over gdi base sniper shoots u down and u hit ground with splat 2,000 creds down the drain

EVA: Hand of Nod Destroyed

I'll try not to be mean but your strategy will be completely useless against a good team..

not only that, there are 2 serious errors in your strategy.

1) What do you do with the chinook while you are hiding when GDI investigate the refinery? They'll steal it

2) How can you use a nuke as a red herring without a teammate with a second nuke? Once you plant the first nuke you have to fly all the way back to base, buy another nuke and fly back to their base again. by that time, the first nuke will be a few seconds away from crunch time, and certainly will have hit or been disarmed before you can arm your second beacon at the barracks.

easiest way, 4 SBHm +4 nukes, 4 buildings.... GDI can lets say disarm 2 of them .... so in the end
NoD win... (really expensive, but easy to do and not that easy to counter)

Only possibility to stop this GDI-nightmare:

kill with the orcas th planting SBH's ...

like every other strat...withut teamwork you will never win against good players... thats what i love in renegae, alone you can't do enough to win...a solo guy can't blow up the underbase, cause obi rips everything and if you trie to rush with apc, the players kill you (even the noobiest noob can fire a few hits on a apc, or kill a hottie, not thinking of mines)

sometimes its easy to get 4 peoples for a SBH-attack...harder to find 6-7 guys for a flamerush

SBH=400
Chinok=1500
Nukes(*2)=2000
Noob=Priceless

Total:3900(-/+ Noob)

Good:
Enemy building dstruction

Bad:
Free apache for GDI
Your death
HUGE cost

Finances:
Best way:
1500 - your teammates
2400 - you

Possibility's:
Late in-game:
Too late - your team pounding enemy - or they getting pounded - and who will waste they're money?

Total:
Crapy strategy!

Congratulations. You've successfully bumped a topic that had no fresh replies for over a month.

Well, since I'm here...
Quote:The CH-47 Chinook is a versatile, twin-engine, tandem rotor heavy-lift helicopter. The contra-rotating rotors eliminate the need for a rear vertical rotor, allowing all power to be used for lift and thrust, giving a top speed of 173 mph (150 knots, 278 km/h). Its primary roles include troop movement, artillery emplacement, and battlefield resupply. Chinooks have been sold to 16 nations, the largest users of which are the US Army and the Royal Air Force (see RAF Chinook). A commercial model, the Boeing 234 Chinook, is used worldwide for logging, construction, fighting forest fires, and supporting petroleum exploration operations.
Thank you, Wikipedia.

Edit: Also, as far as I know, it's impossible to buy more than one Beacon of any type at any given time; you can only have one Ion Cannon Beacon and one Nuclear Strike Beacon at a time.(Yes, I mean "and". It's not very likely you'll have the opposing force's Beacon, but it's possible to do.)

Dude man, that strategy sounds workable...but only in theory. There is always a Havoc on the bankments on top of the GDI wall and the Chinook is a slow ass king size bed.

I once did that...only once and I never did that again. I was a SBH and had my nuke beacon and rushed the GDI base in my chinook and tried to land on the WF. I was shot down. the Chinook lost armor like water.

It would be easier to sculpt marble with your forehead than make this strategy work. The tactic fails at every turn:
-Using the roflcopter
-Abandoning your base when "GDI is on the offensive"
-Trying a solo-rush
-Assuming that you can get there, land, plant your nuke, get in again, fly back, buy another nuke, and come back all without getting shot down, killed, discovered, or having your transport stolen.
-Wasting the vech limit and credits when there are so many better uses for both on C&C_Walls_Flying
-Being extremely cost prohibitive ($900 for roflcopter + 2x$1000 for two nukes, + $0-$1000 for the character being used, comes between $2900 and $3900, almost the price of a 5-man flametank rush)
-Having no assurance of sucess, unless you're playing against a team of blind autistic six year old children that are in comas.

On a positive note, I was running out of toilet paper, so I'll be sure to print plenty of copies of this strat.

the only counter is to shit mines all over the front of your base on walls and watch your ref/pp get destroyed because of no mines inside them, which happens every fucking time when i play a marathon game on those maps. i even had people insult me because i told them to stop throwing mines there

I've messaged Spoony to outlaw this tactic in competitive play .. it's too overpowered. 4.0 will be fixing this issue by making it so that you can no longer purchase both an sbh and chinook at the same time. Sorry to ruin everyone's fun but this bullshit has gone on long enough. Every time I see an empty chinook in GDI's base on Walls_Flying I know my team is fucked. Can't put up with this shit anymore.
