I've been working lately on a special map as a christmas gift to this community I thought I would make it a another snow map....but it was a perfect evening when I started modeling, so I had enough inspiration to make it with such a realism that even I stayed like this --> Well, here are some pics of the progress. I also used a new technique I learned (Alone....) to make the lightning and shadowing a LOT more realistic without have to send your polycount to ****.....Here are some pics of the first beta:<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.fetch.php?id=1768459473><http://www.n00bstories.com/image.fetch.php?id=1866036178>
