Let's try. All please, post there and ask for the source code.
As you can see, not a lot of people use these forums.

That's our chance to show that Renegade community strong.

Please take time to register there and ask for the source code.

Thank you.

I voted yes

(but who the hell is stupid enough to take RTsa as his nickname? And RTsa2 TOO? As well as RTsafin! I mean WTF?)

I don't think they'll release it though..they're EA, you know

Would be nice, but you're all wasting your time. The people at EA who can do this already know we want it and have already turned us down. I'm sure if something changes they'll let us know.
