What'd you do for that day? I spend the day working at Kroger and returned home to prepare this for Sarah.

I had also bought her these before Valentine's Day:

How about you?

Not much actually. My wife worked all day, we are broke, and my grandfather died. That call at about 7am kind of put a damper on things.

Me + my barbeque + baby back ribs = Holy God, now that's freaking good BBQ.

I'm so stuffed I won't need to eat for another day. Not that I really need to anyway...

I came to school and gave my girlfriend the gigantic heart shaped box of chocolates I got her, and the bouquet of flowers, and a Forest Gump related Valentine's Day card, and also a cookie I baked that was <3 shaped. She got me, of course, my Tank Mushroom Cloud Subwoofer shirt, and a blue dress shirt that matches her dress for an upcoming dance, and a picture frame with our picture from homecoming in it. Then we went out for dinner and got Pizza, and I taught her how to sneak around in her Diesel truck by gaining momentum, putting it in Neutral and turning off the engine lol. That was my Valentine's Day...

Me, all I could do was exchange e-cards with the person I love, because it's one of those damned internet romances Still, it was a very nice e-card...

Nicely done, Aircraftkiller

I suck, I didn't do anything special for Valentines day. Helps that I haven't seen my Girlfriend yesterday, because I had to work till 5:30 pm and she lives 3 hours travelling with train away from me.

Altohg I must say I really don't know what to give her. And I take her regulary out for dinner, so that wouldn't be special either.

Oh well, Hope to be with her again this weekend.

Well I found out at about 8pm that it was Valentines day, so not alot.

AircraftkillerPictures etc.

You charmer! I knew you had a soft side.

DreamWraithNot much actually. My wife worked all day, we are broke, and my grandfather died. That call at about 7am kind of put a damper on things.

Damn, that's horrible. I still remember when my grandma died. It's a horrible experience. You never expect it to happen and when it does it smacks you hard in the face.

On a side note, what's Kroger? I'm guessing a fast food chain?

I didn't have anyone to spend yesterday with. Boo-fucking-hoo. So instead, I played "Public Transit Shuffle" in Phoenix all day. Then I came home and went to bed around 7 PM.

Yes, it was effing expensive. The little rose paddles are a nice thing, I did those once too. Success guaranteed!

She had her flowers last friday already. The cat didn't like them so half of them are already chewed .

Kroger is a large grocery store chain in the northern United States, it owns like 25 other stores including about 10 convenience stores. I work in the delicatessen in the Greenwood store on Independence Drive. Kroger's a good company to work for if you're interested in a union job with benefits and retirement related things.

Well, Blazer had 2 dozen roses delivered to my work:

Then, my good friends had their car towed because their apartment complex is a bunch of retards, so we picked them up and took them and my brother to Outback for dinner.

This weekend, I'm buying Blazer a new office chair (he knows this already) but his better gift is X-rated.

Once (if) I get this one job I've been trying to get for a month it seems like, I want to invest in this:

...that's kind of sad that'd you'd prefer a kick-ass (wireless?)joystick complete with throttle and a flight simulator game to the company of your significant other. XD
