Your cd must be so scratched that the drive cannot read it anymore.

You can:

1. buy a new renegade, it should cost you max 5 €/€
2. send it back to EA with 5 € in the envelope and they'll send you a new pack. You'll have to wait more or less 3-4 weeks though.

Light makes a good point: a cd writer will often have less problems with reading scratched cd's
