I'm wondering if its feasible to make a stealth skin that made the SBH+Stealth Tank completely invisible?

Yeah. While you're at it, make the skin completely black. Renegade seems to make black transparent. But that's just client based, and trust me, playing with something COMPLETELY INVISIBLE isn't any fun.

the stealth tank and SBH as compleatly invisible. but with periodic distortining, and detectable at close range. thats at least what ive experienced. and the stealth distortion gets enhanced when they take weapons fire.
