Register 2 nicknames and switch between them.

Sadly thats all I can offer, XWIS won't let 2 people log onto the same nick, so if it thinks your still connected, you have to wait for it to expire. (I don't know how long it takes)

It takes approx half an hour. (from experience)

they could make an IRC bot for this surely?

Not 30 minutes. It's about 20 minutes, maybe 15.
