Hey I was thinking of getting into map designing...thought i should try my hand at it. The only thing is that i can't find a website that hosts a free version of Gmax...and the only ones I can find are 30 day trials or Pay to download ones.

I really want to use the software but cant find a place to give it for free...and I cant pay either cos my parents wont let me...COuld someone help me out please

Thanks !

GmaX is free of charge.

However, if you want the 1337 3D Studio Max that you can make sexy renders and use all the nice plugins with , you'll either have to settle with the 30-day free trial, or buy it.

That doesn't sound illegal.
