Hello everyone,

I've been playing for about 3 months, I'm extremely good at renegade, I've been in BBF and HR before (but I didn't like all the pricks in them).

My best renegade qualities are stealth (sneaking around unseen,killing fast without an SBH), long range sniping, and all around fighting. I am basicly good at everything, but heavily strong in the stealth and explosives department.

I will only join a clan in which the leader can kill me, if he/she can't, I do not want to join; for if the leader cannot kill me, then the clan is not fit for me.

I am looking for a clan with at LEAST 20 people, one with some sort of a reputation, one with experienced, freindly, yet no bull-shit players. I also require they have forums, which are posted on regularly or daily, and that the forums have an easy to remember and easy to access name.

If you are entrested in my services, you may leave a post here and make sure to tell me what the clan is about, in the message I require you leave 4 main points:

1: How many members do you have

2: How long have you been around

3: Why do you want me

4: Tell me about the clan

Post those 4 things and anything else you desire on here, we will discuss joining over pages, if you do not see me fit to join you're clan, do not waste my time by posting you're comments or thoughts.

It would be a real crime if you found a good clan but then failed their hide-and-go-seek test.

Nvm, he's being ironic over a topic you robably didn't see.

I can believe you're a good player but after being only 3 months around, it seems a bit unmodest (is that a word?) how you present yourself. But good luck finding a clan!

Sig update

Oh and for future reference when going through the trouble of making a whole new name, you probably shouldn't create topics that are titled exactly the same.

Eh dude, i don't know who you are or what you guys are posting about but, i posted the thread Looking for a good clan. because i thought it was a good name...if i was this person you're talking about, i think i'd pick a different title...

Oh and yeah even though i've only been playing 3 months i watched my freind play for like 5 months, so i got a lot of experience, i'm just looking for an easy going clan with cool people.

Hehehe, looks like mr. butt pirate here isn't such a douche bag after all, wait i take that back, he's not such a moron after all. Looks like you found out my little chain between names eh? Took you long enough. BTW: if anyone knows one of those sites where you dump enternet chat logs for people to laugh at, tell me. This is gonna be so hella funny.

You all got played, this has all been a big joke, i started up my clan, then once mrpirate here started acting like a fool, i thought of a better idea, i thought i'd just make you all look like losers with no life; which i succeeded in.

You spent you're time posting, writing pissed off and annoyed comments and replies, paging me, trying to find ways to get back at me for taunting you and insulting you.

You have become my paper on human studies over the enternet, my teacher told me to pick a topic on how certain actions, ideas, and insults effect the human brain and the actions of the human brain.

You may find this cruel, and i'm sorry for dragging you into it, but you were so ripe for the plucking, and i needed a quick thesis idea. Thanks for helping.

Here is my short-thesis, i got an A- on it, thanks.

The Human Psych : The Reaction to Inviromental Resentment

A short thesis by: Johnny Lasale

The human brain is a curious thing, it is a wonderous yet cruel piece of the body. Humans can be all giving and understanding, and at a moments notice, turn into violent resentful creatures.

I was recently playing a game, one of which i will not say it's name, for I do not want to give the impression of it being a hateful one. This game in which I played had a certain site which held forums;

I devised a plan to study the reaction of humans to harassment and beleagurment over the enternet.

While studying this, I noticed people over the enternet (most likely ones with low self estime or low strength in real life) would gang up on, or harass those who they believed were weaker or more feeble than themselves. The people would use any example or any excuse to make the other look more stupid, more weak, or finaly, more self resenting.

It is entresting how low humans will go to get back at another, or how low they will go even to make others feel bad or sorry for themselves even when they're "victim" has done nothing, in so that they can feel more powerful and more in-control.

Bonus points for the ironic--albeit unintentionally--final paragraph.

I think I'm just going to put this out there and see if anyone agrees with me:
Johnny Lasale is my all time favourite person.

P.S. I before E unless you're posting on the Renegade Public Forums, in which case they are interchangeable.
