RIAA: You used, and continue to use, an online media distribution system to download the copyrighted recordings, to distribute the copyrighted recordings to the public.

The Accused one: Really? Wow, maybe now they will try to force me to buy a computer and get an internet connection, so they have proof. Or maybe not. Or maybe I did it in my previous life? Who knows?

Has anyone seen the DMCA Version 2.0, prepare to lose any rights you have to own a cd burner, dvdxcopy, anything that can be considered to remotely bother the RIAA or MPAA.
