is there a server problem with everyone getting booted back to the game list? About every 3rd game or so about half way thru I get booted back to either the game list or sometimes back to my desktop. Sometimes I can rejoin the same game and it gives me my credits and score where it left off. Recently, I go back to the list and the game isn't even there anymore. Also, when it sends me to my desktop (actually my Renguard startpage) it says "you have left such n such game". Is this a Renguard prob, a server prob or what? HELP! getting sick of this BS. My info: WinXP, HP Pavilion 2002, sp2, 2.53Ghz, 512RAM, Avast antivirus, Microsoft spyware.

My guess is the server is overloaded. Sometimes it just cuts the connection to a few clients and you can rejoin the same game. Although, it may be 6 on 6 when it was much larger, and you will enjoy the purchase terminal bug. Other times it cuts the whole client list and thusly cycles to the next map.

It's a long thread but you may find it interesting
