When I log on to XWIS in renegade.

The normal message pops up I hit ok.

Than there are no servers there???

I didnt mess with anything?

I did click on some file called "RenRealm" to see if it did anything tho would that of messed it up?

that would be because its called strings.tbd, and unless you want a custom one you dont need it in your renegade directory, it should be in always.dat or one of those.

do you see a "No Servers found" message?

Because it could be too many or other nick problem, or serial problem.

nope, it's called strings.tdb (translation data base).

It doesn't need to be in the data folder, because it's in the server.dat file.
