I was at my friends house he was playin some ren. HGe gets a SBH and goes over to the enemy base. Plants a nuke on the side of the barrackas and OMG it sasys 10...9...8...7...6...5...4...

THEN BOOM A ENGINEER COMES OUT THE BARRIX AROUND THE CONRER AND KILLS HIM IN 1 SHOT WITHT HE PISTOL! Also this was walls flying and he was standing on the wall watchin the becon near the barrix...

Then the becon gets to 2 and we see him turn around and disarm in with 1 shot frome the repair gun....

Stelth skins
1 shot kill insta disarm

Here is some proof
46 kill... hummm... and his team had won on points when NOD had killed there WF and refinery...
Look at that hackers score CRAZY HAX!

A screen shot of the score screen alone is not enough solid proof to actually call this guy a cheater.

i am guessing when dragongaurd comes out we will know who is cheating because of the long wait until (when they finally bypass it) their scores own.

cant he just change his name and make a fake ip to get back on?

edit: what the? negative ladder? is that serverside?

i never wrote cheating is good. its relaxing and a great way to kick ass online, and prove you are I33t to others. it should not be policed and left alone to tarnish on foriegn servers

i didn't say ban him for that, i meant he could get back on easily doing that (couldnt he?)

And well he does have a huge lead over anyone else (nearest=2k), the only thing im worried about tho, is that if he was cheating, all the players must be really n00bish and just think hes good, so they did nothing about it the whole game lol

May i ask what server was this?

Just keep baning the cheaters, eventually they will get tired of changing their IP address and quit, or we will make better cheat bots to detect them.
