Please congratulate icedog90 and Doitle for being selected by the community as global moderators! Give them a few days to learn the ropes of all the new buttons available to them.

I would also like to thank the community here for being so cooperative in the voting process. 63 people cast votes which was also very impressive.

We're going to be having some private discussion about certain issues and how we're going to deal with them going forward. Please be patient.

Congrats both of you!

I expect I got the least votes, but it does not bother me, I never really expected to win. Icedog and Doitle are certainly two of the most respected members of this community, and I believe they will do a good job.

Commiserations to all those who, like me, didn't win.

Congrats, you were the two I originally nominated, so I obviously made the right choice!

I am kind of dessorpited that more people didn't vote for Oblivion though. Maybe he will get another chance in the future.

Congrats to the new guys!!!

Any chance we could see the official count up of votes, or perhaps top five or something.

Also just wondering why only 2 people were chosen?

We probably won't need more than the current 3 global moderators and Crimson...

I was only going to do 1, but since the support was there I figured I would do two.
