The radio service also needs more listeners, but that also comes with needing more DJs to play music rather than having the automated DJ do its thing. Right now I'm running it if anyone wants to listen in.

"Moby - Memory Gospel". Listen to it LIVE at <http://radio.n00bstories.com:6150/listen.pls>

I'd happily run a progressive rock section if 1) I knew how to and 2) had the songs to do it, I only have a small amount of prog CDs in my collection at the moment.

My prog collection is running dry. Hmm, to eBay...

Like I said, lack of music/variety to play. When I build up my prog collection moreso I'd love to DJ a prog radio. But at the moment, I fall way short of the amount of bands/albums I'd need to do it.

I think Aurora has a nice collection of Progressive rock. I agree with Aircraftkiller as well. We need more people. It saddens me to log on each day and see fewer and fewer people on IRC. Come on, it's teh fun.

I'd be happy to DJ and my application was posted on the APB forums .

Style: Prog/Art/Hard Rock, Prog Metal

I have the entire Genesis Discography, 6 Mike & The Mechanics Albums, (almost) every Phil Collins Album, the complete Marillion Discography (thanks to my dad), Dream Theatre - Octavarium, Dio - Hits, A few tracks by Ozzy Osbourne and Black Sabbath, the 100 Greatest Guitar Solos Limited Edition DVD (which i converted to Audio to listen while playing games), Two Scorpions albums - Moment Of Glory and Unbreakable, A 2-CD Various Pack Called "Gods Of Rock", A 3-CD Various Pack Called "Rock Xplosion", The Rolling Stones' "A Bigger Bang", INXS' Elegantly Wasted album, Glenn Hughes' "Soul Mover", The Alton Parson's Project Discography (thanks, dad), David Gilmour's "On An Island" album (the voice and guitar of Pink Floyd), Deep Purple's "Rapture Of The Deep" album, 2 albums by Swedish Prog.Rock band "Focus", 2 Glenn Tipton albums, Tony Iommi & Glenn Hughes' "Fused" album, Ian Gillan's "Gillan's Inn" Album, Joe Satriani's Super Colossal, A few albums by Lordi, Paul Carrack (Mike & The Mechanics lead vocal)'s Beautiful World, Phenomena (Glenn Hughes, Tony Martin and others)- Psycho Fantasy (album), Phenomena - Phenomena I, A Tribute to Pink Floyd (featuring Tommy Shaw of STYX, Mike Porcaro from TOTO and a lot more), Saga's "Trust", The Best of SEAL, Steve Hackett's (Genesis ex-guitarist) "Voyage of the Acolyte" (thanks, dad), Ozzy Osbourne's To Be Wild limited edition album, TOTO's "Falling In Between", "Hits" and "25th Anniversary DVD" (that i converted to audio), A 2-CD Pack "The Greatest Rock Ballads", 2 "Yes" albums, Queen - Hits,

Style: Jazz/Rock/Fusion/Prog (it's complicated to describe)
Brand X' "Masques" and "Livestock".

Style: Goth/Dixieland (spelling)
Voltaire's "Boo Hoo".

Right now i'm waiting for a friend from the US to bring me a few Spock's Beard albums so my collection can be complete.

All of the above is on CDs and i have converted some to MP3 to listen to while playing games/going to school/going to work.

EDIT:

On my 160GB External HD i have a shitload of Genesis, Yes and Marillion bootlegs, 3 Dream Theatre Limited Edition Albums and Ozzy Osbourne's "Under Cover".

The Genesis Bootlegs include tons of Phil Collins-era and 2 Ray Wilson-era concerts as well as a track by Tony Banks (Genesis Keyboards) and Fish (Marillion ex-vocalist).

What about Rush, IQ, Pendragon, Return To Forever, Jadis, King Crimson, Camel, Jethro Tull, Gentle Giant, Arena, Frank Zappa etc? Classic prog! None of that fancy Dream Theatre "look at me" stuff heh .

There's some newer prog I like like The Mars Volta, Porcupine Tree and Frost* too.

Sorry to revive an old topic but Ivan, did you check out Frost* and Porcupine Tree?

Check out a song by Porcupine Tree called Sound Of Muzak, it's one of the best songs (new to me) that I've heard in a while.

Also, since I bought Milliontown by Frost* a few weeks back I haven't been able to stop listening to it, it's infectious!

I spent the last week looking around stores for the bands.
Unfortunately (something usual with prog.rock), they havent even heard of them.

I'll be going to Plovdiv (another city here in Bulgaria) tomorrow to see the relatives and look around stores. If i don't find anything there, i'll try torrents.

I doubt you'll get most prog records in music shops these days.

I've taken the liberty of finding you a few deals on eBay, all of which will ship to Europe. Delivery prices quoted here are to Europe not the UK.

Frost* - Milliontown (One of my top3 favourite albums of all time, it's absolutely immense).

£11.99, £1.50 P+P or £5.00 recorded delivery.

£8.51, £2.99 P+P

US $4.99 (aprox £2.64), $4.99 P+P, $2.00 Postage insurance.

Porcupine Tree - Deadwing

£4.99 (current bid), £2.00 P+P.

Porcupine Tree - In Absentia

£11.99, £2.00 P+P

£11.89, £2.00 P+P or £7.00 P+P Recorded delivery.
