I want to start playing other players online and was wanting to know how I meet up with other players and play at different times throughout the day. i.e. say I wanted to start playing some other gamers tomorrow and wanted the game to commence sometime between 2200 and 2300 hrs and how would I go about it?

Load up renegade, click on Multiplayer Internet, select Westwood Online and join any of the servers with players in. There's always someone on renegade at all times of the day, so whenever you feel like playing just go online

What Danpaul said, because XWIS is one big server, you will meet people that are all over the world, and because of time difference, there is always someone online.
