Im closing down Tiberium Desolation, i no longer have any time to spend on the mod and without a decent modeller the mod is going nowhere. So i wont patronise people by telling you that im finding a new modeller and that ill get back to the mod in a few months, it just wont happen! I want to thank klink for helping out. I may restart this mod in the future but for now its dead.

Oh and please no post saying "I TOLD U SO" "I knew this would happen"

C&C Commando was the only TD mod for Renegade (i think), but SeaMan moved it to Half-Life 2, FarCry and then Crysis (for the next few months)...

Hmm no, I'm not talking about Commando. There's another one for Renegade, they had some nice stuff going, wondering if they were still around.
