just wanted to alert all other mods for diff servers out there that while i went on a private server just to muck about and shoot some people, found a cheater known as kittey749 has multiple cheats enabled including pistol hack, dmg amp, and aimbot... those are the ones i was able to identify

i watched for a few mins in order to be 100% certain, during which she had admitted she cheated in text chat. i have the logs stored on HD if any1 feels they need to see them later lured her onto our clanserver in order to ban her and gain her IP Adress, which is as follows: 214.127.144.216

i suspect that a friend of her known as Ninja8Boy may also be a cheater however i'm not 100% certain on this, but if any of the other server moderators see him here please reply here if you notice anything.

*edit* woops sorry, just realized this might be in wrong section, my bad. if a mod cud move this into General Discussion, as LR01 suggested, please.

Can you better post this at the generals discussion?

Kittey749 is a known cheater and some members have actually gone to XWIS about this to try to get her banned from their servers.

She was in my server a few minutes ago and i can confirm that IP address. So far, i have not seen her cheating in my server. IF I catch her cheating in there our friendship will be broken and she will be baned from my server. Spike8900 is known as her "cheating" partner but i havn't seen him online much.

I think I saw her earlier, but it was on an RPG and so there wasn't much to cheat with.

"She" should be in quotes. There's a 98% chance this is actually a male.

Where do you base this statistic? Only the males of renegade cheat?

Because 98% of Renegade players are male, and 98% of the ones claiming to be female are actually male.

Saying half/a quarter/etc. or most is much better when it comes to making up statistics (or anything alike) than using fake percentages, wouldn't you agree?
