Thank you EA, for paying for a site running a half-working WOL and using innapropriate pop-ups ads.

Thanks for supporting a buggy, shitty ladder site that isn't any different from the 1000 other ladder sites online.

Thank you so much!

Moreover, Xwis' strike team shouldn't need advertisements at all. The servers that run Xwis are paid for by EA. They state they kept the adds to pay for sending costs for prices for the ladder winners. Considering Renegade still has no ladder and if it has, couldn't possibly be subject for a price winner for the ladder as Xwis does nothing at all about cheaters on Renegade (so a cheater could easily win the prices), I DO NOT UNDERSTAND WHY I WOULD HAVE TO BEAR WITH

THE ADDS.

As for clanwars.cc, a downtime can happen to anyone, I guess.

Quote:Thanks for supporting a buggy, shitty ladder site that isn't any different from the 1000 other ladder sites online.

We had a good half hour's downtime. The thing about our ladder, compared to the original WOL ladder, is that when our ladder suffers brief downtime, game data is not lost - games are still reportable when the site is operational again.

Our ladder VERY RARELY suffers downtime. It certainly suffers less downtime than the Renegade servers themselves, under either EA or XWIS's management. It also suffers downtime on a rarer basis than the official Renegade forums, the ones on which we are currently posting. The old WOL ladder suffered downtime and erratic behaviour on a weekly basis, and when it did, game data was lost forever and the only way you could get games added was - wait for it - on the unofficial Clanwars.cc ladder. Once again we're the only ones who can help you out clan-ladder-wise, just like we are now and have been for ten months and counting.

As for it being "no different from the 1000 other ladder sites online", could you give me an example of a website that's been hosting a consistent Renegade league for as long as and with the same level of functionality and professionalism that Clanwars.cc has?

Thanks,
Spoony @ Clanwars.cc.

Indeed. At CW we have two prize brackets for winners - free EA games (EA handle that, obviously) and some C&C collectible items. I pay for those out of my own pocket, including the shipping, and have never asked anyone for donations or ads to support that cost. I'll also make damn sure they don't get sent to a cheater...

Funny, according to the logs that my monitoring software keeps, RenegadeForums and all other BHS sites have 99.81% uptime, leaving 11 hours, 6 minutes, and 53 seconds of downtime this entire year, INCLUDING the times when my own cable internet was down which would easily encompass most of that time.

However, if you're talking about the 2-3 minutes of "hang time" every 2 hours, that would be because the database is locked every other hour, on the hour, for database backups, which are necessary to retain most of our data in the event that some child decides he wants to mess with us.

What are your stats? Or do you even have them? Don't open your mouth and make accusations like that unless you're prepared to prove it.

That's more downtime than our renegade league has had this year. I can't prove this with statistics, but I know it for certain simply because I've been consistently overseeing.

Rich coming from yourself, considering the amount of idiotic and baseless public accusations you've made about my website... that thread on XWIS would be an excellent example, as would be our recent conversation by e-mail about your ladder project. Another shining example, while we're on the subject of people messing with your forums, how about when you were absolutely dead sure that I hacked this site (and your proof was an irrelevant comment which you twisted and took out of context), and it turned out to be nothing whatsoever to do with me at all?

I really hate sites that cant be bothered to make themselves multi-browser compatible...
And also, I dislike sites that are made almost entirely of graphics, like that one. I might have Megabit DSL, but they still break up the page while loading. This is probably just me griping though.

Okay, I have to correct my own post here. It was a server side problem, but how does that contribute to clanwars.cc being crap? It doesn't. Every server has its problems one day or another, and its people like you who jump on it when these mishaps do happen. clanwars.cc is not crap, and atleast they are contributing to the Renegade community. If it wern't for clanwars.cc, there would not be a decent clan/ladder system. Aside from that, if you really think that clanwars.cc is complete and utter crap, I would love to sit back and watch you create a clan/ladder system like they have and prove to everyone that is, indeed, better.

clanwars is a very sucessful ladder system, which if I am not mistaken, has enough decency to have EA atleast donate to them, I want to see anyone get enough respect to get a huge company to donate atleast $10 to them.

As for the advertisements, I really don't care, and I don't know if clanwars does have ad's or not, but if you have those kind of ads on your pc and no one else does, try lowering the ammount of porn on your computer

EA supply us with hundreds of dollars' worth of prizes every month for players, and they (and we) ask nothing in return from the players other than that they behave themselves and follow the rules.

Various other companies offer prizes too.

I know it's "cool" to bash EA and everything, but what they're doing is brilliant.

As for ads, we have a small google banner which takes up a fractional part of the league page, and they are typically related to gaming servers etc... therefore being of potential benefit to players. They don't impose, they don't pop out at you.

Don't dodge my question. Thanks.

As for EA handing services over to the community, well, putting aside the other aspects of "services" which have been handed over to groups such as XWIS and BHS, we are perfectly fine with handling the clan ladder. It's not simply a replacement to the original WOL ladder - it's better than the original WOL ladder, and I say that without a hint of ego or bias.

Yes, sorry about the edit, I wasn't expecting you to read or reply so quickly.

No, I'm not a Communist, they have indeed the right to do this, you qualified their move(s) as brilliant, which is by far, false.

Brilliant would be actual product support, and apart from the "new" (repackaged (or whatever the correct term is to define it) version of the recent one that excluded (yes) Renegade) version of the Level Editor (or those prizes, which are technically worthless), EA has failed their duty to support this game.

You don't think being able to win free games simply by playing a game you like is brilliant? Let's agree to disagree on that, but don't just say "it's false" on a matter of opinion.

Alright, but the fact is that the whole idea is similar to handing out t-shirts (and perhaps other free 'goodies') to people in a convention.

"I have no idea what you're talking about."

You can't possibly be serious.

According to Red Alert: A Path Beyond (and later confirmed by EA's Predator at CnC Den), EA will be releasing a new Renegade SDK. Basically it's a rehash of the tools that came with BfME 2 (something that Saberhawk has already done in July), but officially released by EA.

Who's "we"? Simply the community, isn't that rather obvious?

"...worthless? Any game might grip you the way Renegade has gripped the majority of people on this forum at some point. I guess Renegade is "technically worthless" as well, then?"

I wasn't targetting any game (hell, I didn't even know what they were (specifically) handing out to you, but I assumed it included t-shirts, games, etc.). Worthless because other than making a few morons happy and... Oh yeah, maybe it's brilliant after all, because they can get away with not doing their work, as it makes people like you apparently happy.

Yes, we all know that online petitions work!

About Earth and Beyond: They bought a game and what, like, a year after their purchase EA shuts it down (unprofitability leads to loss of support when consumers are dealing with Electronic Arts).

I could compare this to Dell not recalling a certain battery from a laptop that is affected by the current "lol exploding battery" drama because it didn't get enough sales.

Running a ladder doesn't do anything to fix a game, or get EA to do it's job. It merely allows EA to NOT perform their job.

I don't claim to be "fixing the game", I said we were continuing to support a game even though it's old and buggy. I'm of the opinion that if people here spent less time bitching at EA and XWIS and more time actually making themselves useful in some way, everyone would be better off.

..."allows"? We've had this league since... uh, I think summer 2002. I really doubt anyone from Westwood/EA has ever looked at our ladder and thought "AWESOME! We don't have to run a clan ladder now!" The Clanwars.cc Renegade league was set up, in part, because of the fact the old WOL auto ladder had so many things wrong with it.

the problem with the old ladder is what they are getting at - because the old one didn't work, you got it. this shows laziness on EA's part, cos instead of fixing the ladder, they just handed it over for someone else to deal with.

Sorry, but so many of you retards who post on these forums simply cannot grasp the truth here.

THERE IS NO OTHER LADDER THAN THE CLANWARS.CC LADDER. I can guarantee that NONE of you could send me a link to a working renegade clanwars ladder OTHER THAN clanwars.cc.

Furthermore, the clanwars.cc ladder is fully functional. Allow me to expand on this. It has:

1. The BEST clans on renegade competing monthly for prizes.
2. Extremely easy to use and self-explanatory interface.
3. Excellent moderators/admins that process requests the day they are issued. Also, they have caught and banned several people for the use of radar hack (undetectable by RG) in clan games.
4. A flawless system of manual reporting that has been working with no problems for several months.
5. No downtime except on extremely rare occasions. I would know this as I visit the site daily.

And I really don't feel the need to type any more.

I don't know whether it's the fact that you're jealous of cw.cc, or if it's just simply ignorance, but for whatever reason, so many unintelligent and thickeheaded people on these forums (including even Crimson, it appears) cannot grasp the fact that clanwars.cc is actually a 100% legitimate, working, intact website that serves every decent clan on renegade.

For those of you who are so vehemently opposed to clanwars.cc, I suggest you try it out before you continue to judge it.

If EA was actually going to do something in renegade, the last thing they would probably care to fix would be the clan ladder. So using the excuse that since there's an alternative ladder, they decided not to do anything to fix the clan ladder, is just pretty stupid. If EA really cared, they'd fix major problems like ob walking and what not. Also it does seem a bit strange that only after some YEARS of the clan ranking not working, it suddenly becomes a priority. I would work more towards the new RG than fixing the clan ladder when there's already an alternative. I mean I know it takes a lot of work to completely rewrite it or whatever you had to do, but I don't think the original RG took this long. Then again, that's just me.

By the way there is an alternative to clanwars.cc - there's the league called ESL, which is primarily european, and one of the clans I know who was in it caught a clan cheating and the ESL admins did nothing. Oh wait, yeah they did, they banned the clan that exposed the cheaters. Awesome alternative. Don't know if it's active anymore, though

A working auto-report ladder. In all honesty, that would be great.

However, let's stop and reflect for a second on what you just said.

"There WILL be another ladder"... Okay. That is then, this is now. For the next few months at least, clanwars is THE ladder. God, it must KILL you that EA actually endorses us. You seem so intent on killing clanwars.cc. (the sad thing is everyone automatically agrees with you)

"I DARESAY...3-4 months"... You don't sound too sure of yourself on this. What even is the necessity for another clan ladder when the current one works fine? Look at C&C generals, for instance. It's manual ladder has been working for years. No reason that renegade's would fail.

Let's be honest, Crimson. Your hate for clanwars.cc came from the early days when WL played CW in clanwars. I wasn't on WOL then, so I don't know the details. But I do know that some of the players from [CW] got on your nerves. Furthermore, you seem to get thoroughly irritated by a few "immature" people on clanwars, like wrs or soul for instance. Just ignore them ffs. The majority of people on clanwars forums are fine.

We can all get along. I know we can.

I never tire of hearing this bullshit from you, and the fact you simply do not realise how horribly flawed it is.

Shall I copy-paste our recent email conversation about your auto ladder project? You said you'd love my help but didn't want to involve "the clanwars.cc people" on the grounds that they're all immature.

Now, I challenged you to explain exactly who you mean by this - you couldn't think of a response, but I'll happily give you another go. It can't be the admins in charge of Renegade, because we administrate the Renegade league in a mature and professional manner. It can't be any specific player because why would you need their involvement?

So what did your statement mean?

If your entire anti-CW argument is based on the fact that there is a minority of idiots who use it, then by the same "logic" Renguard, XWIS, Gamespy, Renegadeforums.com and every single public server is equally guilty.

Crimson wrote on Wed, 13 September 2006 15:50:2) There WILL be another ladder, I daresay it will be up within the next 3-4 months.

Thank god. You've only neglected it for ten months and counting, so thank god. You never gave a shit about providing clan support to Renegade until I posted that thread on XWIS. Go ahead and pretend that's untrue, I dare you. Considering how often you've publicly stated that clans and a clan league are a waste of time, etc. It's plain to me that you couldn't give two hoots whether there's a functional league, you just can't handle Clanwars.cc getting rightful credit for something.

On my watch as admin/overseer of the renegade league, there has never been a single 24-hour stretch where either myself or a fellow admin wasn't there to add peoples' games, answer questions, etc. Compare that to your ten-month stretch of utter neglect.

Crimson wrote on Wed, 13 September 2006 15:50: This thread has been moved to the Hot Topics forum where it seems to belong.

Fine by me. Way to dodge my earlier statement directed at you, by the way. Reminds me of Snipler or whatever the hell his/her name was, because he/she still hasn't had the common decency to admit he/she was absolutely dead wrong about every feeble point he/she attempted to make.

I do know the details, even though I wasn't around then.

The absolute worst anyone from [CW] did was a little forum flaming. You'd probably be quite surprised about some of the stuff WL did... it's quite funny, some of it.

Everyone, and I mean everyone from [CW] back then got over all the fucked up shit that WL did A LONG time ago. Crimson is still angry at [CW] even though they didn't do anything. Go figure.

I withdraw my offer to assist your ladder project, by the way.

Then you are proving your own point, which obviously for any intelligent being seems flawed.

I know for a fact that there isnt a single clan on renegade thats half decent that does not participate in clanwars.cc

Name one that could compete with the clans on clanwars.cc. Then have them play us to back it up.

Click at my siggy.

And before you ask: HR challenged us and got beaten up quite badly. You asked me to name one, and i gave you one.

We got beaten up by GW but then again: not many can say they haven't, can they?

I remember MrPirate challenging us once but we never played him because we simply don't play people which show bad attitude.

Sure, we play for fun, not in competition but we can put up a good fight against most clans. Ask PApirate.

If you want to do a funwar with us, go to our forums and ask for one in a decent way, then we will arrange a date, time, number of players and maps. Might not be in a couple of days though, we try to keep it to 1-2 funwars per week and we already have some appointments.

And don't give me the "I only play for CW.cc points" thing, please .

You are probably right because exercise makes clans good but there are other ways to exercise, though you need to have many community contacts to get in contact with enough other worthwhile clans. clanwars.cc makes that easier.

However, as anyone can join up at cw.cc, it's normal that you must also have beginning clans that aren't good.

I think a statement like "you can find many good clans at clanwars.cc" would be more appropriate.

I will continue to stand by my stance that the CW clan was in the wrong in their whining about the clan matches between WL and CW, and I will continue to agree that most of the members of WL were a bunch of crybabies. As soon as they had to actually TRY to win, they lost interest in this game. Their arguments were stupid, and good riddance to them. Can you please tattoo this on your forehead so I stop being accused of saying anything besides this?

I challenge Crimson to refute this. The plain fact is making a clan ladder didn't even enter her mind until I made a thread on XWIS (who have made no efforts to create a Renegade clan ladder either) suggesting an endorsement for the Clanwars.cc ladder which was already in existence, seeing as how nobody else could be bothered to do it. Crimson tried quite surprisingly hard to stop this, although failed... mainly due to the fact her "arguments" were complete garbage. I think it was about a week later that she suddenly announced that she's always wanted to provide clan support to Renegade and is gonna fix up a new clan ladder, DESPITE her constant earlier statements that clans and a clan league are a waste of time.

She didn't give a shit about the ten months of utter negligence Renegade's clan support status has had from those in authority. Yet when it seemed likely that a community she still has an irrational hatred of might get this honour, suddenly it's top of her agenda. I can put it no plainer than by saying she doesn't care about providing Renegade's clan support - she simply wants to take something away from Clanwars.cc.

Until you are privy to all the emails exchanged between EA, myself, and Strike Team, plus all the private chats between the BHS members, and and tape recordings of my conversations with Blazer, you'd better watch what lies you're spouting. I have ALWAYS wanted to get both ladders back up, and I have ALWAYS intended to post a thread on the CW forums asking if anyone amongst them wanted to consult on the project when it was time. There's a thing called priorities, and for now, there is a gap in Silent Kane's time where he was able to finish his part of the ladder project. We are currently running a test of the software which is creating text file dumps until the database components are done:

We would like to get a "basic" ladder working again which just ranks based on the ladder points sent by the server at the end of each map, but afterwards we would like to get a more complex calculation (hopefully with input from the community) to use some of the other data collected towards the rankings.

Regarding clans: restoring something similar to the old functionality would be great except that I don't see why clan size should be limited to 20 people like it was with WOL. Clans also run a separate ladder and could use a more complex calculation.

Wednesday, February 22nd, 2006... and when did you bring this all up? Wed, 07 June 2006 03:50... and you are proven a liar. Congratulations!

I can't answer this question. I can't give you specific names because I can't tell them apart.
This is pathetic.

If you cannot come up with one figure of authority at the Clanwars.cc Renegade league (and there are only three to select from) who is unsuitable to manage a Renegade league, then it's time to admit you didn't have a leg to stand on in the first place.

And if your "clanwars.cc is not suitable to have something like this" angle is based on an individual player, rather than an official Clanwars.cc Renegade League representative, then by that sad attempt at reasoning, I could name one idiot who uses Renguard or posts here and conclude that every project of yours is equally unsuitable.

I fail to see where you're trying to go with this. Yes, I freely admit that I haven't been available at least once every 24 hours to respond to questions for a league that I don't run. Are you happy? where I'm going with this will be explained towards the end of the post.

I don't have the faintest idea how to run a successful clan ladder? Based on what? A wild hare in your ass told you so?
Based on your complete lack of experience... but hey, prove me wrong.

Rich coming from yourself, considering the amount of idiotic and baseless public accusations you've made about my website... that thread on XWIS would be an excellent example, as would be our recent conversation by e-mail about your ladder project. Another shining example, while we're on the subject of people messing with your forums, how about when you were absolutely dead sure that I hacked this site (and your proof was an irrelevant comment which you twisted and took out of context), and it turned out to be nothing whatsoever to do with me at all?

Ugh, seriously? I barely remember that.

hmmm, and even when you could remember it you never retracted this false accusation (and it wasn't an "I think Spooky did it" deal, it was a "Spooky did it" deal)

Crimson wrote on Thu, 14 September 2006 03:50I find that very strange. I don't know what you're trying to accomplish here, but if you want to doubt my dedication and devotion to this community, you go right ahead.

Sheer hypocrisy. I don't go out of my way to criticise your projects. You, on the other hand, have been doing precisely that for as long as I can remember. Indeed, the only reason for my participation in this thread was to refute misinformation about my league... much like the ignorant bullshit you've been spouting on the same subject for some considerable time.

Seeing as how I don't have access to this forum of which you speak, and therefore could not know of this conversation, then AT THE VERY MOST you've proven me to be mistaken. How fucking dare you label me a liar on that? Or is this another of your false accusations you won't have the spine to retract, like when you wrongly publicised the "fact" that I hacked these forums?

By the way, even if you started in February, what have you proven? The fact that by your it'll-be-ready-in-four-months estimate it takes you nearly a year to accomplish something? And yet you state on the record that Clanwars.cc is "not capable of doing something like this" when our system's been in place for ages, simply because there are one or two idiots on the forums LIKE THERE ARE IN EVERY SINGLE COMMUNITY OF THIS GAME? Hey, at least when there's a problem with my league that needs addressing, it doesn't take me a year to do so.

Better idea: how about you do one of the following: justify your accusation, or withdraw it? I'll lay odds you can't do 'A' and you don't have the decency to do 'B'. Just like when you wrongly said I hacked the forums... Someone with a little more decency than you would've publicly said you were wrong, instead of locking the topic and hoping everyone would forget about it. I guess it would have been too much of a blow to your ego. You're never wrong... I'll be honest, I'm surprised you didn't delete the thread entirely.

That's one accusation about which I was mistaken, and there you see I admit my error. It's really not a big deal for me to admit that... all that's changed is instead of not trying to create a clan ladder, it's merely taking you an unsufferably long time.

Sorry, but I can't say one way or another about you hacking or not hacking the forums until I can locate my logs from that time and figure out what you said to make me believe it was you. Maybe after I'm done waxing Blazer's ass crack I will dig them up and maybe "admit that I may have been mistaken". However, I'm pretty no one but you gives a shit.

And given that I don't know much about or participate in the CW site after a horrendous situation with the owners and creators of the site (at the time? Crimson wrote on Thu, 14 September 2006 03:33 Sorry, but I can't say one way or another about you hacking or not hacking the forums until I can locate my logs from that time and figure out what you said to make me believe it was you.
Then I'll refresh your memory.

At the time, I was on reasonably good terms with three parties: yourself, Olddust, and Jschtz. (to elaborate: co-owner of NoN00bs with Olddust, server mod at N00bstories and a long-time n00bstory writer, and just a general buddy of Jschtz) Funny how things change, eh?

Jschtz rented a server from Olddust and it was called N00bstations. It became rather popular and you became somehow affronted at its similar name to "N00bstories". Kholdstare decided to ddos N00bstations repeatedly. At roughly the same time you demanded their change the name of their community. Timing, for all I know, could have been a complete coincidence so I'll not make any accusations in your direction about the ddos attacks.

Me being in the middle of it and having a measure of respect for all three parties (not Kholdstare, obviously) didn't really want there to be a big ugly ddos-war, so I decided to try to negotiate some kind of peaceful solution with myself as a kind of mediator. I went to Olddust first: he said fine. I went to Jschtz: he said fine. I went to you, and your response was de-modding me from N00bstories (hardly a big deal since I rarely if ever played in public servers at the time) and telling Jschtz that if you didn't get your way, you'd publicise the accusation that NoN00bs was responsible for "Renguard's recent downtime". Completely fabricated, of course, and you knew it. That wouldn't stop many people believing it if you said it was true, though, and I think you knew that too.

I thought: fuck this. Olddust is willing to play nice, Jschtz is willing to play nice, you aren't. I said goodbye to N00bstories and said something along the lines of "it's been fun, cya". I forget my exact wording.

At the same time (and believe it or not, this was a COMPLETE coincidence) your forums got hacked. I pointed this out to you before I left the IRC conversation. Two entirely unrelated statements.

Your forums getting hacked was not me, nor done at my command, nor anything to do with me at all. I said so at the time.

Ah. So you need not withdraw a false accusation on the grounds that "you're the only one who gives a shit".

I'll be honest: it really means nothing to me that I was incorrectly accused of this. In fact most of CW thought it was hilarious, myself included. I merely bring it up as a parallel.

Crimson wrote on Thu, 14 September 2006 03:33 And given that I don't know much about or participate in the CW site after a horrendous situation with the owners and creators of the site (at the time? I guess) ah... you mean when WL guys photoshopped screenshots wrongly implicating Oompah (the creator of Clanwars.cc) of "fixing" [CW] and [WL]'s ladder points? Or perhaps when, again, WL guys decided that a good use of admin powers on these forums would be to steal [CW] members' accounts and use them for evil purposes?

Tell me, what's the worst anyone from [CW] ever did to you? Call you fat? It doesn't tip the scale.

Does it matter who the admins are? I'll answer it for you: if they're doing a good job, no. They are doing a good job. If you want proof, make an anonymous account on Smak forums, say you're a new player thinking of joining the league but want to know if it's run maturely, and ask the community what they think of the admins.

And I am currently in charge of it. Now, you can say whatever you like about me personally, but I run the league with the utmost professionalism.

I think you forgot to mention the huge DDoS attack that olddust sent at all of my servers, crippling the entire RenGuard network. I mean, in the interest of honesty and fairness. I didn't just pretend there was a huge outage. There actually WAS a huge outage, and it WAS caused by olddust... no one involved except him had the capacity to launch such a large attack at that time and it was common knowledge among a large segment of the community that he had quite a substantial botnet.

Not to rehash this old, old, shit but the "n00bstations" name was TOO similar to n00bstories. Uh oh, I'm repeating myself again. My old disputes with the CW clan do not include any alleged faked screenshots. They are completely related to their whining and crying about the results of a 7-game matchup we had 4 years ago. What my moronic and childish ex-clanmates did at that time is not and wasn't condoned by me. I was satisfied to discuss the multi-game match on its merits, no screenshot fakery necessary.

Quote:Tell me, what's the worst anyone from [CW] ever did to you? Call you fat? It doesn't tip the scale.

Alleged? There's no "alleged" about it. WL faked a screenshot which "proved" that Oomp posted a topic in the private forums saying he'd never let WL get ahead of CW on the ladder and if they shaved the points off gradually, no one would notice.

If I recall it took Bluuurrr about five minutes to find half a dozen things wrong with the screenshot (incorrect registration dates, member numbers, pixellation etc) and Stripey another ten minutes to find another dozen more mistakes WL made.

There is no "alleged" about this.

Let's not forget the "stealing CW players' accounts on this very forum" either. Either of those two things is sure as hell worse than anything I've ever done on this game.

Big deal admin-wise, most likely they missed the topic or figured it was a joke. I know it wasn't long after that thread that you couldn't post anonymously, so maybe that's why...

I think there's a little distinction between an admin not noticing that (or possibly not paying it too much heed) and an admin actually stealing someone's account, as happened to the CW guys on this very forum.

That topic is long gone by the way, those forums aren't even viewable anymore... but would you like me to make a sticky thread on Smak Forums explaining that it wasn't you? I don't really see what else you expect me to do...

That was the old ladder on auto, and an auto league is never perfect. Even our new BFME2 auto league (the official one we run for EA, in the most definite sense of the word "official") isn't perfect, sometimes games don't report because gamespy are crap, no offence to them. That's the nature of the beast for an auto league, and it's why we changed to a manual league a year ago (the fact the automatic clan pages kept dying was also part of it). FYI, this was about a month or two before I first became a ren-admin. Since the change to manual league, there has never been a problem of that nature. Game data has never, ever been lost in the manner auto league data could be, and (this I promise you:) will be for your project.

by the way, the funniest thing I've seen all week has now been replaced by a quote from Blurr from that thread.

Quote: Coincidentally, if you check the westwood standings right now, you'll find this for the top 4.

1. W3NDYS 119 wins / 46 losses 10,038
2. +DOA+ 52 wins / 5 losses 10,022
3. NS 278 wins / 98 losses 10,015
4. -WL- 3 wins / 1 losses 10,014

I guess it's easy to see why WL would hate the clanwars ladder so much, I mean how can you justify being 3-1 and being in 4th place, JUST ONE POINT behind a clan that is 278 - 98. ^^ crap like that is why oompah made Clanwars.cc in the first place. And there are still people here who say the Westwood ladder was worth something...

All I'm trying to say is that given these experiences, you wonder why my impression of CW.cc is so piss poor. I don't know if we ever got the points and quite frankly I don't care. The clan doesn't even exist anymore.

The only way data would be lost is if the FDS failed to send it at the end of the map. We are not using Westwood's software, we are using software written by us (Silent Kane mostly). Adding in a way to manually report a match that was missed wouldn't be a huge stretch to add.

Is it me or BHS does fuck all? Okay, good job on 1.03 and core patches. Whats happened 1.04? You can promise these ladders but if something doesn't happen soon Renegade will be ghost game.

GET 1.04 OUT FOR FUCKS SAKE. The cheating accusation culture what circulates around Renegade is killing the game faster than any amounts of idiots can.

Oh back to the quote. So, what if you don't like someone at work, do you quit? Grow up.

So what if they are idiots, i bet there are always a number of idiots on a server at any given time. They haven't got huge egos, they are good players and they can back it up.

Besides, do NE actually play clans anymore? Or do they think all other clans cheat?

As to Maiden and Crimson: Maiden, it seems Crimson offered you a possibility to help out on the ladder. Seems like she is asking you who could consult. Why should she then give names? You know best who could be suitable at CW.cc to do this, not?

As to all these old stories, it's totally irrelevant now. It just shows how stubborn both of you are.

TBH Maiden, maybe it's time to stop arguing and thinking everyone that comes close to you just wants to bash you or your ladder. Grab the opportunity and make it something good ffs.

Read that again and see if it clicks. Just remember that unlike you, I don't publicly post misinformation about any of your projects, as you've done about mine on innumerable occasions, because of -a- something that happened years ago, or -b- the fact a minority of players who use it are infantile.

I don't think you understand very well.

You remember the Strike-Team thread, don't you? I'm sure you have at least a vague recollection since you posted a few times in it. When I made the proposal to XWIS, Crimson's first reply was something like "go look at their forums and see if they're capable of running a league".

That is the biggest pile of bullshit imaginable. Since the league was re-launched I daresay you could look as hard as you like and not find a single instance of unprofessionalism or bad management from the people actually running the show, the ADMINS. But omfg, there is a minority of idiots on the forums. I say again: there is a minority of idiots who use Renguard, there is a minority of idiots who use Renegadeforums.com, there is a minority of idiots who use Gamespy, there is a minority of idiots who use XWIS. And apprently unlike Crimson, I'm actually bright enough to not criticise those projects unless it's the ADMINS who fuck things up.

MaidenTy1 wrote:TBH Maiden, maybe it's time to stop arguing and thinking everyone that comes close to you just wants to bash you or your ladder. Grab the opportunity and make it something good ffs.
in case you haven't noticed, I've been running the league for some considerable time now.

I was talking about the x-wis ladder. There lays your opportunity to work with Crimson at something that would be good for every ren player AND clanwars.cc (auto report games, anyone?).

I already do work for something which is (potentially) good for every ren player and clanwars.cc. I've been working at it for about a year. It's not my fault people continually post misinformation, and in some cases outright lies, about it... and never retract any of them when I prove them to be absolutely dead wrong. God knows I've done that often enough...

...as for auto-report games, when we changed to manual last year there were about three or four dozen advantages (of manual as opposed to auto) and one disadvantage which was incorrect anyway, so forgive me if I don't see the big deal of going auto. Auto isn't better, it just SEEMS easier (and in actuality, it isn't)

Then I'll refresh your memory.

At the time, I was on reasonably good terms with three parties: yourself, Olddust, and Jschtz. (to elaborate: co-owner of NoN00bs with Olddust, server mod at N00bstories and a long-time n00bstory writer, and just a general buddy of Jschtz) Funny how things change, eh?

Jschtz rented a server from Olddust and it was called N00bstations. It became rather popular and you became somehow affronted at its similar name to "N00bstories". Kholdstare decided to ddos N00bstations repeatedly. At roughly the same time you demanded their change the name of their community. Timing, for all I know, could have been a complete coincidence so I'll not make any accusations in your direction about the ddos attacks.

Me being in the middle of it and having a measure of respect for all three parties (not Kholdstare, obviously) didn't really want there to be a big ugly ddos-war, so I decided to try to negotiate some kind of peaceful solution with myself as a kind of mediator. I went to Olddust first: he said fine. I went to Jschtz: he said fine. I went to you, and your response was de-modding me from N00bstories (hardly a big deal since I rarely if ever played in public servers at the time) and telling Jschultz that if you didn't get your way, you'd publicise the accusation that NoN00bs was responsible for "Renguard's recent downtime". Completely fabricated, of course, and you knew it. That wouldn't stop many people believing it if you said it was true, though, and I think you knew that too.

Hi spoony, still have a pole up your ass I see.

Ahh yes, Jschultz. Thief and overall fuckwit. After his (pathetic) attempts to attack the IRC network he resorted to attacking crimson's renegade servers. I thought he would like a taste of his own medicine. this was done on behalf of no one but myself. I do not like people who fuck with networks I frequent, period. Also note that a known (now patched) FDS exploit != DDoS.

EDIT: Yes I know this is a late reply, no I don't care what you have to say about it.

It's still bad to judge a community on a few morons inside of it. People like troopr, that one guy who said "dicko" (he was funny, albeit, but still stupid), and plenty of others I don't care to get in an internet fight with. There's so much drama in renegade I think it sort of needs its "fill" of it every once in awhile. Whether it's reborn bashing or some guy ddosing servers for his own server to get more people, etc. etc. I don't know a specific time when there really wasn't something "huge" going on. Something always manages to be found.

Pretty much why I'm not really interested in renegade anymore. Although I still am a little confounded when I find servers in CSS that disallow swearing.

Recap on topic: Clanwars.cc works fine

There are idiots on it (as there are everywhere), so it's bad to judge them for it. I highly doubt they're going to ban every idiot they find, because it's not like every idiot here gets banned, as long as they keep it somewhat within reason. One just has to look back at the recent Ack thread to see that people can be just as vicious as the next.

You really also can't bring out something that happened some 2 or more years ago. As far as I would know, spoony wouldn't do anything so outrageously stupid as attacking the forums, and I would be sure that Crimson didn't have a part in Khold's attack on jschultz's server. Both have done worked for something for the community. The truth really is, (and as much as I know) since Spoony has run clanwars.cc, it's ran perfectly fine,(whatever flaws that needed fixing, got fixed quite fast) and upheld its rules. If you think there's a flaw in the system, then what is it? I'm positive Spoony would look at it and consider whatever problems you think there are.

I just think people are more interested in a RG 1.04 than a clan ladder, especially when a clan ladder is already available. It's been nearing or surpassed a year now since RG 1.04 and as far as the renegade community knows, there's no light at the end of THAT tunnel. I'm not saying you should hurry, but shouldn't you allocate your resources towards RG instead of pointlessly towards a clan ladder?

A flawless argument if ever there was one... let's see, my "arrogant bitch" statement is justified because so far we've had two public accusations from yourself which I've disproved, and yet you haven't retracted in the slightest.

The difference between you and I is if I'm wrong about something, at least I've got the spine to admit it... something that you've now completely failed to do twice so far in this thread, and yet you wrongly (again...) say I do the same by failing to withdraw a statement I DID WITHDRAW IN THIS VERY THREAD (that covers the "idiot" part, although "idiotic hypocrite" might sum things up better.

Speaking of hypocrisy, I'll repeat something you continue to sidestep: after years and years, you STILL say Clanwars.cc is incapable of running a ren league because you posted anonymously on Smak forums, someone else did the same, you're amazed that people can't tell the two apart, and the admins thought it was more of a joke than something that needed clamping down on. When you compare that to the admins stealing CW players' accounts on these forums right here BY YOURSELF AND THE REST OF WL, are you so fucking stupid that you think the Smak Forum impersonation comes within a million miles of being so pathetic?

^^ I've always made it perfectly clear to the Clanwars.cc community that they're totally welcome to criticise anything the admins do or voice their opinions about flaws in the system. That happens once in a blue moon anyway, and when something does need fixing, I can't remember the last time it took me longer than a day or two to do so.

Shall we compare that to your timeline for a moment? You announced the public Renguard bypass, the one which effectively makes Renguard completely useless, in January or February I think? Do you have any idea how many times I've been playing in N00bstories servers, when KholdX would start an argument (never the other way around), said something like "you're gonna have connection problems if you keep this up" whenever anyone said something back, then the other person left the game? Then people say "oh, he left" and KholdX's reply would be "looks that way, don't it"?

Then people complain about it (REPEATEDLY) in the N00bstories private admin forums (yes, I've read these considering I used to be a server mod there) and Crimson would refuse to do anything about it, in fact going as far as to defend him, because, and I approximately quote:

[01-10|02:36:42] <FMzunnie> can you leave the fanmaps channel please most of the FM

'ops/admins/mods' dont seem to want you in the channel
[01-10|02:40:19] <Kholdstare> what?
[01-10|02:40:44] <FMzunnies> because of the bullshit that happened they dont want you in the fanmaps channel
[01-10|02:40:56] <Kholdstare> its your channel is it not?
[01-10|02:41:51] <FMzunnies> its fanmaps channel... people that pay/support the server most of them dont want you in
[01-10|02:43:14] <Kholdstare> most of whom being?
[01-10|02:43:24] <FMzunnies> the admins of the server
[01-10|02:43:30] <Kholdstare> names zunnies
[01-10|02:43:43] <FMzunnies> i am not giving names , thats not the point
[01-10|02:43:47] <Kholdstare> besides soul who will be leaving this network soon enough

[01-10|02:47:43] <Kholdstare> All FM channels then?
[01-10|02:47:54] <FMzunnies> just the fanmaps1....
[01-10|02:48:00] <Kholdstare> why 1
[01-10|02:48:07] <FMzunnies> because thats the admin channel
[01-10|02:48:19] <Kholdstare> which I have proper access to
[01-10|02:52:11] <Kholdstare> Fuck it, I'll leave all the channels
[01-10|02:52:33] <Kholdstare> know this: If I find out any of them continue to talk shit fanmaps will suffer the direct consequences
[01-10|02:53:07] <Kholdstare> adtionally they break even the slightest rule on this network they go poof
[01-10|02:53:13] <FMzunnies> thanks
[01-10|02:53:27] <FMzunnies> nice to know
[01-10|02:55:29] <Kholdstare> To make it simple, They talk shit, your network suffers.
[01-10|02:56:33] <FMzunnies> Your saying?
[01-10|02:56:59] <Kholdstare> You've already been informed, and you know exactly what I mean.
[01-10|02:57:06] <FMzunnies> No i dont
[01-10|02:57:15] <Kholdstare> How can you not
[01-10|02:57:36] <FMzunnies> You gonna scan the server because i asked you to leave the channels?
[01-10|02:57:38] <Kholdstare> IF I find any of them, posting any more shit about me, your network will suffer the consequences.
[01-10|02:57:42] <FMzunnies> You gonna scan the server because i asked you to leave the channels?
[01-10|02:57:49] <Kholdstare> No, i'm tired of dealing with stupid fucks
[01-10|02:58:01] <FMzunnies> Im not stupid...
[01-10|02:58:04] <Kholdstare> foriegn stupid fucks who haven't been around too long to know who they are fucking with
[01-10|02:58:18] <Kholdstare> Im tired of it, and you fucktards caught me on a BAD FUCKING WEEK

I fail to see how wondering whether Kholdstare will ddos someone for making him angry constitutes "arrogance", when the plain truth is he has done exactly that on innumerable occasions.

And you might make yourself something other than the third most pathetic, wretched geek who ever set foot on this game (after Cyberpunk and EMINEM). Actually, I doubt that will ever happen.

The Zunnie/FanMaps logs were just an afterthought. I'm basing my you're-a-pathetic-script-kiddie-bitch based on your constant actions in the N00bstories servers, and you know damn well I'm telling the truth about those, as does every other N00bstories moderator at the time (often they were on the receiving end of your temper tantrums), as does Crimson.

Do you deny this?

MaidenTy1 wrote: Hi Kholdstare, do you still ddos people at will in N00bstories servers every time you get the rules wrong as a moderator and someone questions you for it?

Actually, moron, Crimson has been posting misinformation, false accusations and outright lies about myself and my league for a hell of a long time. I've proved her wrong again and again - has she retracted any of her false accusations? Of course she hasn't. She hasn't even had the common decency to stop posting on the subject.

I have never gone out of my way to flame any of her projects, to the ridiculous extent she has with mine. I've never done anything wrong to her at all. The "WL did <action> XX years ago, Crimson is bad" angle of yours is extremely ironic, considering that after crimson's first four or five attempts to flame Clanwars.cc were completely ripped to shreds, it became "someone impersonated me on the forums three years ago and that proves Spooky is incapable of running a clan ladder, even though he didn't have Renegade at the time let alone being in charge of the league". Tbh if she's going to say something as laughable as that, I think it's fair to bring up WL STEALING AND HIJACKING [CW] MEMBERS' ACCOUNTS ON THIS FORUM, AT A TIME WHEN CRIMSON WAS IN CHARGE OF THESE FORUMS AND THEREFORE ACCOUNTABLE FOR THE ACTIONS OF HER ADMINS. I think that's a little worse than some random idiot pretending to be Crimson, don't you? Yet did I ever say that Crimson is incapable of handling Renguard or Renegadeforums.com or N00bstories on the basis of a pathetic action three or four years ago? No, because that logic step is something only Crimson seems to want to do.

Kholdstare wrote on Sat, 16 September 2006 02:19"Waaaah, Kholdstare is a packet kiddie even though I have no proof that the logs I posted aren't completely false or edited" etc etc.. Honestly, if you CANNOT support any of your arguments, you shouldn't post at all.

Hey, the Zunnie thing was just an afterthought. Pay closer attention to my accusations about your constant ddosing of poor innocent players in the N00bstories servers who did NOTHING to provoke you, and Crimson defending you because you're her "pet bulldog" and "when people fuck with me (crimson), he ddoses them for me".

For Aircraftkiller's benefit...

the "arrogant bitch" statement was made after Crimson made YET ANOTHER false accusation towards me. This time it wasn't about hacking the forums or mismanaging the league - it was "lying", on the grounds that I was unaware of a conversation that took place in a private forum I have no access to, and was not publicised.

So how does that constitute "lying"?

The "idiot" statement was here:

MaidenTy1 wrote on Thu, 14 September 2006 03:26Crimson wrote on Thu, 14 September 2006 03:22Challenge met. Accusation NOT withdrawn.
actually, idiot...

Quote:Seeing as how I don't have access to this forum of which you speak, and therefore could not know of this conversation, then AT THE VERY MOST you've proven me to be mistaken.

That's one accusation about which I was mistaken, and there you see I admit my error. It's really not a big deal for me to admit that... all that's changed is instead of not trying to create a clan ladder, it's merely taking you an unsufferably long time.

So far you've wrongly accused me of "lying", and wrongly accused me of hacking these forums, and you've withdrawn neither of these false accusations.

Perhaps "hypocrite" would be better than "idiot", considering that Crimson says I didn't withdraw an accusation WHICH I DID, IN FACT, WITHDRAW, even though she hasn't withdrawn ANY of her false accusations towards me, EXACTLY AS I SAID SHE WOULDN'T HAVE THE SPINE TO DO AND HAVE BEEN PROVEN ABSOLUTELY DEAD RIGHT.
